BRITAIN TO PROTEST

Gareth Jones' Death

Peiping, Aug. 17.

The British Embassy intimates that the confirmation of Mr. Gareth Jones's death will entail strong representations to Nanking. The body was found well within the Chahar border, its discovery by a policeman indicating that the territory is under Chinese control.

Captain Millar, the British Military Attache, and Dr. Mueller, the other captured passenger who was later released by the bandits, left Kalgan this morning for Paochang. However, as it is not confirmed that the body has yet been taken to Paochang, they may have to travel 30 miles to the spot where it was discovered in order to carry out the necessary identification.

OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED

A later message from Peiping states that Mr. Yueh Kai Hsin, the Foreign Affairs Commissioner of Chahar, arrived from Kalgan this afternoon. He reported to Mr. Wang Keh Min on the Gareth Jones affair.

As a result of his report, Mr. Wang Keh Min officially confirmed to the British Embassy that the body found on Tuesday last 30 miles south-east of Paochang is that of Mr. Gareth Jones. He confirms that the body is now at Paochang.—
Reuter.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS

Peiping, Aug. 17.

Captain Millar, of the British Military Attache's office, has telephoned from Kalgan that the Provincial authorities have received a telegram from Paoantui in the Paochang area, to the effect that the body of a foreigner, riddled with bullets, has been found thirty miles southeast of Paochang.

This position is right in the area where the bandits have been moving with their captive, Mr. Gareth Jones and as it is known that no other white man is in that area, the report forms conclusive confirmation that the victim of the outrage is the British journalist.

It is expected that Captain Millar and Dr. Mueller will proceed to Paochang to-morrow for the purpose of identifying the body, which has arrived there.—

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

Census In Germany

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Aug 17.

A census of medical practitioners in the Third Reich, undertaken by the German Federation of Panel Doctors, shows that on July 1, 1935, over 52,000 doctors were practising in Germany.

Of these 31,680 were panel doctors, 7,500 were assistants, 3,700 were supervising doctors, and 4,000 were in official positions. The remainder were composed of doctors in neither State nor private situations, but were dependent entirely on their own practice.

Some 10 per cent. of the total were aged between 27 and 35, 39.3 per cent. between 36 and 45, 17.4 per cent. between 56 and 65, .89 per cent. between 66 and 75, and 0.7 between 76 and 87, the latter age having been reached by seven veterans.

Complaints are at present general that a great shortage of young doctors to act as locum tenens prevails, because the numbers of graduating students in recent years have been below the average, but this scarcity is expected to be overcome next year, when the students now preparing for their final examinations graduate.—

THE NAVAL PARLEY

No Replies Yet

London, Aug. 16.

It is understood the British Government communicated some weeks ago to other signatories of the Washington and London Naval Treaties—the United States Japan, France and Italy—the outline of its views and aims with regard to speeding up of preparations for a five-Power Naval Conference, which is required to be held under the Washington Naval Treaty before the end of the year.

Government proposed that bilateral conversations should be pushed forward and concluded as soon as possible and that thereafter it might be possible to widen the scope of conversations which might become multi-lateral.

It suggested these conversations might be held in London in October. No replies to these suggestions have yet been received and no invitations to such a preliminary conference will be issued until it is clear whether it could usefully meet as proposed. Under Washington Treaty it falls to the United States Government to issue invitations for a full formal conference provided for in Treaty, but the view is held that London might prove a convenient centre for the meeting.—

TO HELP THE UNEMPLOYED

Physical Culture Training

London, Aug. 16.

A number of unemployed men, drawn from specially depressed areas of North-East and North-West England, Middleland, Scotland and South Wales, have been undergoing a four months' course of training in South London as instructors in Physical Culture, under an experimental scheme conducted with the approval and financial assistance of the Ministry of Labour.

It is intended to employ the men, when proficient, as leaders at junior instructional centres and elsewhere. In addition to walking six miles each day between the hostel and the gymnasium, the men exercise actively for five hours in three sessions.

Beside ordinary physical training the course includes boxing, ju-jitsu and gymnasium games. Twice weekly the men attend lectures on anatomy, hygiene, physiology, and elementary psychology. The men, whose ages range from 19 to 31, include unemployed miners, dockyard labourers machanics, draughtsmen, etc.—

MANY MISSING

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Altogether 1111 persons have now been listed as missing as the result of the burst dam catastrophe at Ovada, says an official statement issued to-day. It is added that 97 belonged to the parish of Ovada, three to Molare, four to Capriata and seven to Cremolina. Some 82 corpses have been recovered, of which 62 have been identified.

The Edison Electrical Power Co., to whose daughter concern the destroyed works belonged, has placed 1,000,000 lira at Il Duce's disposal for the relief of the distress of needy survivors.—

THE CHINESE GUARDS

Blamed For Train Hold-Up

Tientsin, Aug. 17.

The possibility of the Japanese authorities demanding the installation of Japanese guards on through trains on the Peiping Railway, following the bandit outrage last Thursday night, was voiced in well-informed Japanese quarters this morning.

Japanese militarists claim that the Chinese guards were wholly to blame for Thursday's incident.

Two more Koreans have since succumbed to their wounds, and one Korean is in a most critical condition.—

THE FINAL TEST MATCH

Wyatt Sends Visitors In To Bat

London, Aug. 17.

One of the most criticised skippers in recent years, R.E.S. Wyatt caused a sensation to-day when he won the toss and sent the South Africans in to bat on a perfect Oval wicket.

The tourists need only a draw to win the rubber, and when they went in to bat their batsmen played very slow cricket and at the close of play had scored 297 for 6.

The tourists brought in Siedle in place of Bell, while the England Selectors passed over E. R. T. Holmes, the Surrey skipper, who would have been very much at home on his own ground, and Barber, the young Yorkshire batsman, who was nominated twelfth man.

There were some 15,000 present when Wyatt led the England eleven out on to the field.

FAST BOWLERS

Wyatt is probably relying on his battery of fast bowlers—Nichols, Reid and Bowes—getting early slip catches, and old-timers show their approval of the policy.

Reid, probably the fastest bowler in England at the present moment and a newcomer to Test cricket, and Nichols, his Essex Club-mate, opened the English attack, against Siedle and Mitchell, who scored 30 in 35 minutes, Siedle scoring 10 and Mitchell 18, the rest coming from extras.

Early in the game Wyatt showed that he was going to adopt the shock tactics and after returning from a brief rest Reid clean bowled Mitchell with a no ball. A slight drizzle then fell, but play continued to be interesting, 52 runs being scored in the first 50 minutes. Both batsmen were playing delightful shots on the leg side and were not in the least troubled by the quick bowling changes, Siedle contributing 25 to the first 75 runs and Mitchell 45.

THE LEG TRAP

Clay was bowling round the wicket with four men close in on the leg side, but Mitchell, as the result of crisp cutting, reached his 50 after 95 minutes. Siedle, on the other hand, was most cautious, the 100 being hoisted after 110 minutes, Siedle being 30 and Mitchell 68.

A score of 103 for 0 at the luncheon interval rather suggested that England had been mistaken in their policy.

There was a crowd of 20,000 present when play was resumed, and England met with her first success in the scond over, when Robins, the slow spin bowler, caught Siedle in two binds and had the South African snapped up by Ames behind the wicket. 116/1/35

STOLID KNOCK

Siedle, who was unable to play in the fourth Test owing to a knee injury, had played a stolid innings, lasting 130 minutes.

The next wicket came in the same over Rowan, playing back to Robins, was clean bowled by a leg break without addition to the score. Robins had thus taken 2 wickets for 1 run after lunch.

Reid was pitching them short and once or twice caused Mitchell to duck from a high-kicking delivery.

Joined by Nourse, Mitchell took his former enterprise and sat on the splice scoring 18 in 60 minutes. Following the luncheon interval, he was 25 minutes at the wicket before adding to his score!

Nichols and Reid were given short spells of two overs each, but did not prove troublesome, the 150 going up after 180 minutes.

LEFT-HANDED CATCH

The partnership had added 48 runs when Nourse was well taken by Wyatt, who held a low left-handed catch at third man off Bowes. 164/3/32.

Nourse, who is the son of the veteran Test player David Nourse, had batted enterprisingly during his 50 minutes at the crease.

Viljoen, the next man in, had an uncomfortable quarter of an hour before tea, but remained with Mitchell until the interval, at which period the score was 212 for 3, an addition of 99 runs for the loss of 3 wickets on the luncheon total.

MITCHELL HUNDRED

Mitchell reached three figures for the second time in the present Test series when he cut Clay to the boundary to complete 101 after 210 minutes. His innings, which included nine boundaries, was featured by a delightful variety of strokes, though it was by no means an enterprising knock.

Viljoen played a painstaking innings, scoring 5 runs in 35 minutes and being mildly barracked by the crowd.

The second century was hoisted after 245 minutes, and tea was taken at 212 for 3. Viljoen's contribution to a partnership that realised 48 runs was 23, while Mitchel was 115.

PLAYING FOR DRAW

Giving the impression that they were playing for a draw, both batsmen played themselves in the slowest possible manner when play was resumed.

Reid, coming on after 21 runs had been added, proved successful when Bruce Mitchell snicked one of his expresses into the waiting hands of Ames at 234.

Scoring 128 in 285 minutes, the youthful South African played a model defensive innings, his magnificent all-round display including 11 boundaries.

Cameron then joined Viljoen and the pair added 14 runs before Cameron was taken by Mitchell, the Yorkshire player, at the second attempt, at second slip, to provide Reid with his second victim.

Viljoen took 120 minutes to score 39, while Wade batted for 25 minutes for his "duck."

NO FREEMASONRY

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 18, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, Aug. 17.

The German State Governments as well as the Reich Commissar for the Saar Region have been instructed by the Reich Minister of the Interior, Frick to dissolve all freemasonry lodges as far as they have not already dissolved themselves voluntarily, and to seize their property.

This measure is based on the Reich President's decree, for the protection of the people of the State, of February 1935 and on the law of July 1933 concerning the confiscation of the property belonging to enemies of the people of the State.

According to an official statement it had been ascertained that the property of freemasonry lodges have been largely employed for subversive purposes.—

SYNOD DISSOLVED

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 18, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, Aug. 17.

The provincial synod set up by Bishop Zaenker for a evangelical confessional movement in Silesia had been dissolved by the authorities on the grounds that the "Confessional Synod" has been convened by a dissenting group in opposition to the official Silesian provincial synod and had arrogated to itself the competence of issuing "official" instructions to congregations, an action which is calculated to mislead the public.

The dissolution of the Silesian opposition Synod appears to indicate that the Reich authorities are determined to uphold the legality of Reich Bishop Muller's administration which has been challenged by the opposition as "unconstitutional."

The opposition of the confessional movement has within the past two years held three national synods to back up its claim to the full legal status as a separate church or institution. It seems, however, unlikely this claim will be recognised by the Reich Government.—

AMERICA IN MOURNING

Two National Heroes

New York, Aug. 16.

Great black streamers across the pages of extra editions proclaimed the death of the one-eyed hero of American aviation, Wiley Post, and the United States' star humorist, Will Rogers.

Papers were grabbed from the hands of newsboys. People stood in the streets and read the story from Point Barrow, scarcely believing the news. Newspaper offices were besieged with telephone calls asking for confirmation of wireless reports of the tragedy.

Maysville, Oklahoma, Post's home-town, was prostrated at the news. Close friends were despatched to break the news to his parents, who live on a little farm a couple of miles from the town, without any telephone.

Claremore, Oklahoma, which Rogers, it first citizen, made famous, suspended business when the news came through.

From Hyde Park, President Roosevelt gave out a statement on receipt of the news of the accident. He was shocked, he said at the tragedy which had taken Rogers and Post from the country. "Will was an old friend and beloved by all. Post leaves behind a splendid contribution to aviation. Both were outstanding Americans who will be greatly missed."

GREAT SOULS

In Chicago ex-President Herbert Hoover paid a tribute to the lost fliers. "The news was a terrible shock. I have long known them both. They were great souls."

Mary Rogers, 19-year-old daughter of the famous humorist, was rehearsing a play at a theatre in Skowhegan, Maine, when she was told of her father's death.

Mrs. Post was at Ponca City, Oklahoma, when she learned the news. She was prostrated. She had originally planned to join her husband on this flight.—

Reuter.

SENATE TRIBUTE

Washington, Aug. 16.

There were remakable scenes in the Senate, when Senator Robinson paid a tribute to Wiley Post and Will Rogers. He said Rogers was probably the most widely known citizen in the United States, and was certainly the best loved. He made fun for all mankind, with never an intentional sting. He was kind, generous and patriotic.

Senator Robinson added:—"All the nation mourns these two great citizens; they were both representative of the highest types of manhood."

Curiously enough, the news of Post's death coincided with the presentation of a Bill in the Senate to pay him $25,000, which was the nation's purchase price for the plane, Winnie Mae, in which he flew around the world. The plane will be presented to the Smithsonian Institute's collection of historic planes.

The Bill passed the Senate and will now go forward to the House of Representatives.—

Reuter.

NEW MACHINE

Seattle, Aug. 16.

The Signal Corps wireless operator stationed here has notified his headquarters that he has recovered the bodies of Wiley Post and Will Rogers from the wreckage of the Moscow-bound plane which crashed near Point Barrow this morning.

Inspectors of the Department of Commerce have been despatched to the scene.

Post was not using his famous Winne Mae, the machine in which he has attempted and broken so many records, but a new Lockheed Orion, fitted with pontoons. He was attempting to fly from Seattle to Alaska, across the Behring Sea, and so to Moscow.

OUT OF CONTROL

It was learned from native eye-witnesses of the crash that as Post and Rogers were taking off from a small river, their engine mis-fired while they were banking and the plane got out of control fifty feet above the water. When they crashed the right wing was torn off the machine and the engine was forced back through the body of the plane, crushing Post.—

TO GET RID OF

STOMACH TROUBLES

An English Doctor writes :—

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after most of my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."

(Signed) Dr. H. G——, M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

THE English doctor is the most conservative medical man in the world, and when he not only recommends but personally uses a remedy there can be no more convincing proof of its efficacy. This doctor is but one of many who constantly advise the use of 'Bisurated' Magnesia in all cases of indigestion. Most stomach trouble is caused by acidity, and the reason why 'Bisurated' Magnesia gives quick relief is that it instantly neutralises excess acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining. Nothing could be simpler, safer or surer. If you suffer with indigestion or stomach disorder of any kind put your faith in European science and make an end of your troubles by taking 'Bisurated' Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt.

JEWISH ART

New Regulations Introduced

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 18, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, Aug 17.

The new regulations creating the uniform organisation embracing Jewish activity in all branches of art, drama and music have been agreed between Gestape—the secretary of the State Police and Special Commissioner Hinkel, recently appointed by Dr. Geebbels to supervise Jewish cultural activity in Germany.

The regulations published on Saturday provide for the incorporation of all Jewish cultural organisations in the "National Association of Jewish cultural leagues" with the managing committee appointed by Hinkel. Only non-Aryans and their wives or husbands may be members of the Jewish cultural league and a membership ticket with a photo is necessary for admission to all performances, concerts or other functions which are closed to German public.

Similarly only Jews who are members of the cultural league may perform in plays and concerts or speak at lectures or discussions arranged by the League. All such functions must first be submitted by the managing committee to the special commissioner, Hinkel, for approval. The cultural Leagues are requested to use the premises owned or leased by non-Aryans for their performances or meetings as far as possible. The National Association will have to own an approved organ for the contents which all persons at the Berlin headquarters will be held responsible.

EVERY FACILITY

It goes without saying that neither in this organ nor in any performance in cabaret or other function must any criticism be directed against the National Socialistic state or its institutions. The possibilities of artistic activity for non-Aryan German subjects have been greatly increased by the creation of the uniform organisation, states a semi-official agency, commenting on the new regulations, which it goes on to say, are a proof that the National Socialistic State offers its non-Aryan subjects every possibility of leading their own artistic and cultural life, providing they refrain from openly penetrating nto the art or culture of the German people.—

LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ, Scientist

"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Aug. 18, 1935.

The Golden Text was: "I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people." (Lev. 20: 11, 12).

The Lesson Sermon included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. O Lord, thou has't pleaded the causes of my soul; thou Hast redeemed my life." (Lam. 3: 24, 24 58).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, the Christian Science textbook by Mary Boker Eddy: "So long as we believe that soul can sin or that immortal Soul is in mortal body, we can never understand the Science of being. When humanity does understand this Science, it will become the law of Life to man,—even the higher law of Soul, which prevails over material sense through harmony and immortality." (P. 311).

NO TRUTH IN RUMOURS

Albanian Legation Denial

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Belgrade, Aug 17.

The Albanian Legation here issues a statement that all reports of an uprising in Albania, except those published by the semi-official Albanian news agency, are devoid of foundation.

Press messages from the Albanian frontier seem to indicate, however, that order in Albania has not yet been restored. Numerous officers and State officials are said to have refused obedience, but the disorders appear to be confined to South Albania. South the Tirana Government has suspended the telephone services, it is difficult to judge the situation accurately, and it is not quite clear what the driving forces behind the revolutionary movement really are.

The newspaper Pravda is inclined to believe that the insurgents are largely composed of persons who disapprove of the Government's foreign policy. The paper anticipates that in the event or Government emerging victorious, it will probably proclaim a military dictatorship.—

THE SENATE APPROVES

Pittman's Resolution

Washington, Aug. 16.

The Senate has approved of Senator Key Pittman's resolution authorising an investigation of the working of the Silver Purchase Act.

Senator Pittman has announced that the hearings of the special committee appointed for the purpose will begin immediately after the adjournment of Congress.

Meanwhile, the House of Representatives has disagreed with the Senate amendments to the Tax Bill, which will therefore go to conference for adjustment of the differences.

The House, however, shouted down a motion to instruct its conference to accept the Senate amendment repealing sections of the Silver Purchase Art in respect of the fifty per cent. profits tax.—

Physicians emphasize :

"Take Kalzana to conquer Weakness"

"Whenever there is evidence of disfunction in the body, lack of minerals is probably a contributing factor," writes Dr. H. F. W. B., London

"After a course of Kalzana the general condition improved, tiredness disappeared, the patient became more cheerful and the entire organism got strengthened and rejuvenated" writes Dr. Cl. R.

KALZANA the discovery of Prof. LOEW

MINERALS play a very important role in the body, for a shortage of these minerals is always followed by weakness and ill-health.

Any single organ may be first to suffer. In some people it will be the teeth which show up the existing mineral deficiency. Others will lose their power of resistance to colds and diseases. In women—irregularities of the functions is mostly due to the same cause: lack of vital minerals. Physicians now advise "take Kalzana tablets because they conquer the mineral deficiency." Kalzana brings exactly those vital elements into the body, the lack of which causes so many complaints. Kalzana was made to infuse these elements into the body, it is the outcome of patient research by that famous scientist Prof. Loew.

Follow the advice of Prof. Loew and thousands of physicians, and make Kalzana a daily addition to your diet. Then you will soon notice how much better and stronger you feel.

A few typical symptoms of mineral deficiency are:

- General Weakness
- Anæmia
- Nervous Irritability
- Skin Troubles
- Tooth Decay
- Low Resistance to Colds and Infections
- Feminine Complaints

The opinion of leading Medical Papers:—

"The Tung-Chi Medical Paper" writes:

"The regular administration of Kalzana in sufficient doses maintains normal blood alkalinity, replaces excessive loss of calcium from the tissues, markedly relieves many of the distressing symptoms of disease and definitely assists the body to overcome the infection."

That well-known Medical Paper, "The Practitioner," writes:

"Kalzana acts efficiently in promoting the growth of strong bones and healthy teeth—in reducing blood pressure and stimulating the glands and blood-forming organs.

"Kalzana is indicated in the diet of expecting and nursing mothers, and of rapidly growing children and in all conditions where a mineral food is required, particularly because Kalzana promotes calcium retention."

That is the explanation why Kalzana is prescribed on an ever increasing scale by medical practitioners, and it has been scientifically proven that physicians can rely upon Kalzana.

EDEN'S GENEVA'S VISIT

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 30.

During Mr. Anthony Eden's Geneva visit the House of Commons will rise and the Cabinet for the most part disperse.

Sir Samuel Hoare will, however, remain in London to hold the fort at the Foreign Office with Sir Robert Vansittart.

To them Mr. Eden will send—as he always does when abroad—his very long despatches in cypher. These reports are usually supplemented by at least one long telephone conversation every day.

Nothing at the moment is likely to arise which would require the calling of an emergency Cabinet. If necessary, Sir Samuel Hoare can consult with the Prime Minister, who will be in Worcestershire.

CONSERVATIVE BOLSHEVIK

The headquarters of the British delegation to the League Council will, as usual, be the Hôtel Beau Rivage, one of the oldest in Geneva.

They will occupy the same rooms as previous British delegations. Mr. Anthony Eden's suite on the second floor has two sitting-rooms, one facing a street, the other overlooking the Lake.

Whatever the political complexions of their Governments, national delegations are strictly conservative in their choice of lodging.

M. Litvinoff, for instance, remains true to the Richemond. The French and Italians invariably go to the Hôtel des Bergues. Mr. Bruce and the Australians put up at the Hôtel de la Paix.

The Czechs and Hungarians share the Beau Rivage with the British delegation.

STRONG LEAGUE VIEW

"Australia has a strong League of Nations view, and will know how to express it," Mr. Robert Menzies, the Australian Attorney-General, told me before he left London at the week-end for home.

The Dominion Governments have been kept fully informed through the customary channels of developments in the Italo-Abyssinian dispute.

The High Commissioners in London also have been in touch with the Foreign Office.

No expressions of opinion have so far, I understand, reached Whitehall from the Dominions.

Canada, Australia and New Zealand are expected to fall in with the British line at Geneva.

The position of South Africa may be rather different, because of her growing export trade to Italy in subsidised Italian ships. The racial question may also influence the South African view.

"VERY WONDERFUL PEOPLE"

Sir Edward Grigg's reference in the Commons to M. Clemenceau's verdict on British rule in India carries one back to the years just after the war.

M. Clemenceau toured India in the winter of 1920-21, shooting two tigers within a few months of his 80th birthday.

Journalists were naturally alive to the news value of the "Tiger's" prowess, and on his landing at Toulon he was asked for his impressions. He began, however, in another vein. He said:

"I do not talk on politics any more, but I can say what an immense impression was made on me by India and what I saw of the British Empire. You English" (for there were English journalists in the group) "are certainly a very wonderful people."

Only then did M. Clemenceau answer the questions about his shoots.

BEATING BIG BEN

At the end of each day's business in the House of Commons the Clerk reads out the items which have not been reached. The Government Chief Whip calls out which day they will be taken.

Late on Thursday night Capt. Margesson called out "to-morrow" to an item of business. Then he looked at the clock and saw it was midnight. With fine attention to detail he called "this day" instead of "to-morrow" for two more items.

Big Ben then began to chime twelve. Capt. Margesson blushed. One or two M.P.s cheered.

If Capt. Margesson's "this day" had been taken literally the House would have had to sit on through the night doing yesterday's work.

OLD AMERICAN FURNITURE

That well-known furniture expert, Mr. Moss Harris, who has attended Christie's for over half a century, has hit upon an excellent idea.

In the compass of 70 pages he has described and illustrated the history of old English furniture, with a short chapter on American craftsmen.

Apparently the first settler to make furniture which has survived was Nicholas Disbrowe. He was born at Saffron Walden, and emigrated to Connecticut in 1639.

The earliest piece by him is a two-drawer chest carved and inscribed:

Mary Allys Chist, cutte and jouned by Nich. Disbrowe.

Later, in 1790, Duncan Phyfe, of Scottish descent, established himself in New York and blended the styles of Hepplewhite and Sheraton.

CINEMA TRADE NOTICES

PUBLIC HERO NO. 1

So declares J. Walter Ruben, director of fast-moving screen drama. It's another form of reporting he says, and the reporter's mind works just as in a local room.

A striking instance is his latest picture "Public Hero No. 1, now showing at the Queen's Theatre. The story deals with the pursuit of a notorious public enemy by the Department of Justice. It shows how far the investigation goes, the perils the investigators face, the hardships they suffer and the devotion they put into their jobs in the complex task of trailing down their quarry.

The new picture, a story by Ruben and Wells Root, was directed by Ruben with an elaborate cast. Chester Morris and Joseph Gallela play pivotal roles in the fast-moving plot involving the pursuit of a notorious criminal Barrymore plays a physician aligned with criminal gangs, and who in the end proves the boomerang that puts a gang leader into the hands of the law.

"A similar cast" says Ruben" is on police record in a mid-Western city, where a physician who made a business of treating wounded gangsters and refusing to make a report was arrested.

"Another case is on record where a physician was captured and forced to perform a plastic operation He was later silenced by fear of vengeance of the gangsters, but when assured of protection told the story."

ANN CARVER'S PROFESSION

Is a woman's place merely in the home? People who are interested in learning an answer will find it in the Columbia picture "Ann Carver's Profession" starting at the Queen's Theatre on the 20th (Tuesday).

In this powerful drama Fay Wray is seen as Ann Carver, a lawyer whose efforts to gain a greater reputation for herself results in her neglecting her husband.

It is only after he has become involved with another woman and a series of complications result, that Ann Carver realizes her true happiness lies in the love of her husband.

Opposite Fay Wray is blond-haired Gene Raymond, in the role of her husband while Claire Dodd, Arthur Pierson, Frank Conroy, Frank Albertson and Claude Gillingwater form a strong supporting cast. Edward Buzzell directed.

Private Worlds

Private Worlds, a most unusual drama, is the current attraction at the King's Theatre. Claudette Colbert, whom one usually associates with well-dressed, glamorous roles, depicts a doctor in a mental home who clings to the memory of a lover killed in the War. Her colleagues are Joel McCrea and Charles Boyer, a Frenchman, who is intensely disliked by her.

The action reaches it's climax when a riot occurs in the home and in the excitement and worry of getting matters straightened out Miss Colbert and Boyer are drawn together and realise that they not only like each other but had actually been living in a state of unrecognised love.

Apart from those already mentioned, the cast also includes Joan Bennett, Helen Vinson, Jean Rouverol, and Big Boy Williams.—

WAR IN THE CLOUDS

At The Alhambra

A thrilling aviation picture with plenty of air stunts is the film "War In The Clouds" now showing at the Alhambra Theatre.

The picture is an exciting melodrama of the air which concerns a plot of international conspirators to steal a secret formula for highexplosives from the U. S. Government.

The band of spies on learning that the formula was being shipped to "Washington by plane blew up the ship in the air. This leads a thrilling hunt for the robbers, with air plane battles in which ships are shot down in flames as their occupants leap for their lives.

A stirring romance is injected into the film in which two air pilots battle for the love of a girl. More exciting incidents are added by the kidnapping of the girl by the conspirators.

Lyle Talbot and Wescott are the two aviators who battle for the girl played by Ann Dvorak. Others in the cast are Robert Light, George Cooper, Charles Wilson, Henry O'Neill, Russell Hicks and Edward Mc-Wade.

"Murder in the Clouds" is an unusual and baffling mystery drama, involving several strange murders in the air. The picture is exciting as it is interesting and is worth seeing.—O.M.O.

THE "BEST YET"

Still To Come

London, July 29

The only London man who has seen Charlie Chaplin's new film returned from Hollywood to-day, writes a correspondent. He is Mr Murray Silverstone, London chairman of United Artists.

"Charlie's film is finished except for the ending," said Mr Silverstone. "That was Charlie's problem when I left him. He has several endings—and cannot make up his mind which to use.

"He does not know whether to finish on a huge laugh or a huge sob. Whichever he chooses, it will be a secret until the film leaves his studio. He told me that he would not let anybody know until he could show them the complete film.

"A SATIRE

"At present the picture is called "The Masses," but, finally, it may be "Street Vi."

"I think it is the best film Charlie has ever made. It is a satire on the machine age, with Charlie as a humble worker who is driven crazy by the machines he works with. Finally, he smashes up the factory, and is sent to prison.

The film has no dialogue and no subtitles and lasts for a little longer than his one, "City Lights." It is the first time that Charlie has made a film without explanatory titles.

HIS OWN STORY AND MUSIC

"The story and all the music are Charlie's original work. The film is definitely arranged for presentation in London in October, and I expect that it will be at the Leicester-square Theatre.

"Charlie has certainly made a find in his new leading lady, Paulette Goddard. She is a very pretty brunette and is obviously cut out for success as a dramatic actress.

"Charlie is starting another film immediately in which she will be the star. He will direct it, but will not be seen on the screen."

TENNYSON POEM

Made Into A Film

When Tennyson's poem, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," comes to the screen, it will have an all-English cast, according to present plans, and a new name.

Warners are now considering "Charge of the 600" and "Into the Jaws of Death" as possible titles.

So far the British cast includes Leslie Howard, Ian Hunter, and Errol Flynn, with the possibility of Madeline Carroll being borrowed to play Florence Nightingale, the feminine lead in the picture.

Most of the research work on this film, which won't begin for five months, will be made in England with the aid of the studio's British office.

INTENSIVE RESEARCH

Part of this extensive research and preparation is due to the fact that Hollywood producers always try to have their films as near perfect as they can be, and some of it may be traced to the financial statistics recently announced at a Hollywood film convention.

For every dollar, it seems, that a picture makes in the domestic market, a studio can figure on fifty cents when the film is released in a foreign country. If the picture deals with a story particularly interesting to a country, the financial returns will be that much better.

So you can understand that a picture dealing with the Crimean War and glorifying an English heroine will be worth plenty when released throughout the British Empire.

RED CROSS FORERUNNER

And speaking of Florence Nightingale recalls the fact that this great woman seemed destined to be portrayed on the screen this year.

Wasn't it M.-G.-M. that planned a film called "The Brave Live On," telling the story of the young woman who did such wonderful work in the Crimean War and organised a nursing unit that later became the Red Cross?

Whether the picture ever got beyond the "planning stage" is doubtful but it is a fact that Rosamund Pinchot was considered for the part of Florence Nightingale.

NOW LEADING MEN

The two most talked about new leading men in Hollywood to-day are Michael Bartlett and Henry Fonda. The former, so far as preview audiences are concerned, steals Grace Moore's new picture completely, and Fonda manages to get the raves in the Janet Gaynor film, "The Farmer Takes a Wife," in which he appears.

Bartlett originally came to Hollywood with a Fox contract and had his first name, Edwin, changed to "Mike." Just as he was about to break forth in song, the movies realised that singing pictures were not a success (due to the manner in which they were presented in those days) and Bartlett left town without having made a film appearance.

His return to the cinema village a few months ago and his instant success in films are now part of the record.

"GREEN PASTURES"

Henry Fonda an Omaha boy, came straight from the New York stage version of the play in which he makes his movie debut, and, although under contract to Walter Wanger, was loaned to Fox to appear in the celluloid production of the play.

When Max Reinhart makes "Green Pastures" it may be a coloured film in more than one sense. The German director may make it in colours.

This is doubtless inspired by the enthusiastic reception that "Becky Sharpe" got when it was shown simultaneously in Hollywood and New York.

"TRANSIENT LADY"

Frances Drake, is probably the only actress in all of Hollywood who returns to let any difficulty or trouble disturb or ruffle her. No matter what happens, she goes along quietly, calmly and with a smile that is simply captivating.

An excellent example of the way she takes things was shown during the filming of Universal's new film, "Transient Lady," which comes to the King's Theatre on Thursday, with Miss Drake in the leading female role. She is supposed to come into a house out of a violent rain storm. Naturally her raincoat had to be wet. So the studio wardrobe provided the raincoat and a property boy turned the house on her. As it turned out, the raincoat leaked like a sieve, and the icy water poured through, soaking her summer dress and running down her body in rivulets. But Miss Drake never said a word, never complained, never even let on the coat leaked until the scene was taken. Then, smilingly, she remarked: "I guess we'll have to wait until my dress dries out." The ordinary Hollywood actress would have thrown a dozen fits about it, but she wouldn't let such a small thing disturb the even disposition.

Miss Drake was born in New York, but most of her life was spent in Canada and England. She was educated at Havergal College, Toronto, and at an exclusive school in England. She had no idea of becoming an actress, but when she finished school she met Gordon Wallace, young American actor. He discovered that has and Miss Drake could dance exceptionally well together, so he suggested they work up a dancing act. Their act was so good that Edward Lauriliard booked them for Ciro's famous night club in London.

Miss Drake did not care for the night club atmosphere, so turned to the stage and become famous overnight when she appeared in "Little Earthquake." She was signed immediately to play the film, "Two Hearts in Waltz Time," and followed this with "The Jewel." She was a sensation and Paramount brought her to America to play opposite George Raft in "Bolero." That was the start of her American film fame. She has appeared in "The Trumpet Blows," "Ladies Should Listen," "Forsaking All Others," and now "Transient Lady."

THE FIRST MILK BAR

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

A few years ago the Londoner desiring only a drink would go to a public-house or one of the innumerable tea-shops. Now he can find many a soda fountain, even in the once drouthy East End, and he can get a variety of drinks, including orange juice, tomato juice and milk, and in some of the dairy shops a variety of appetising milk drinks.

The promoters hope that the opening of the first milk bar in London this week will lead to the establishment of a chain of bars for the quick serving of non-alcoholic drinks in London and other towns. Milk will be served in about fifty different ways, after the Australian manner. The pioneer bar is to be opened in Fleet Street.

The fact that Fleet Street has been chosen may be regarded by those who work here as a compliment to their appreciation of food values, as the most severe test of the experiment, or as the result of a suggestion by the Board of Agriculture (which must be interested in the new enterprise) that it will attract more publicity in Fleet Street than in any other English street.

FILMS PUT A POSER

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 30.

Customs officers in Glasgow were set a real poser the other day by Mr. Ian S. Ross, a Glasgow man, who is one of the amateur filmproducing movement in Britain. Mr. Ross wanted to enter two of his films for an international competition at Budapest next month, and the Hungarian Consul directed him to the local Customs office. He was told that he would have to fill up a form and seal his parcel in the presence of a Customs official."

PERHAPS ANOTHER AHEAD

That was all very well, but at first the right sort of form could not be found. There was no record of any previous despatch of duty-free returnable films from Glasgow to a foreign capital. Eventually two forms were unearthed at the back of a desk. Mr. Ross is wondering what will happen if he is lucky enough to win challenge cup. He has been warned that the importation of a gold cup for a year will create fresh problems for the poor Customs officials!

AMONG FIRST AMATEUR COLOUR STUDIES

One of the films he has sent, "Edge o' Winter," should be of special interest to the Continent in view of all the talk about the invasion of the screen by colour. It is one of the first colour films made by an amateur, and Mr. Andrew Buchanan, the editor of the 'Gaumont-British Magazine," had a kind word for it at the last Scottish Film Festival. The other film, "All on a Summer's Day," has already won prizes in Scotland and England.

EMPIRE NEEDED FOR WORLD FUTURE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

They believed there was no future for the world unless the British Empire remained united. They were now almost the sole guardians of the art of freedom in the world, and he thought the people of the Empire as a whole were doing more than any others to pave the way for permanent peace and permanent liberty among the peoples of the world.

That was the comment of Lord Normand (the Lord Justice-General) when he proposed the toast of "The Visitors" at a dinner given by the Edinburgh Merchant Company in the Merchants' Hall on Saturday to the delegates from the overseas Legislatures of the Empire, members of the Empire Parliamentary Association.

There was a company of about 100 at dinner, and Mr. R. H. Munro, Master of the Merchant Company, presided.

SOMETHING OF OUR BEAUTIES

Lord Normand said that in the short period in which they had been in Scotland they had seen something of its institutions, and its important public men.

Many of them, of Scottish descent, had come on a pious pilgrimage to the homes of their forebears, but none of them came as total strangers.

Scotsmen were a race of migrants and pioneers, and there was no part of the Empire to which Scotsmen had not carried their peculiar characteristics.

The toast of "The City of Edinburgh" was submitted by the Hon. Sir Baron Jayatilaka, Ceylon, who stated that the first account of Ceylon was written by a Scotsman of the name of Robert Knox 250 years ago.

The delegates visited Galashiels on Saturday and were shown through Bridge Mill, and the various processes of tweed manufacture were demonstrated to them.

"PRONE TO ACCIDENTS"

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Some people are notoriously "unlucky" in the way of accidents, and the Industrial Health Research Board has for some years been trying to find out whether there is really anything substantial behind "unluckiness." Its work during the past year has confirmed the suspicion that there is. It was found that "in every occupation which has been analysed by the Board's investigators, roughly three-quarters of the recorded accidents happened "to one quarter of the people exposed "to the risk." This was true not only of accidents in the course of their work but also of minor domestic mishaps, and even of "the chances of getting a foreign body in the eye." The experiments are still continuing, but the existence of something which can fairly be described as "proneness to accidents" seems to be established. Side by side with its researches "in the field" the Board is trying to devise tests of "accident proneness" which will make it possible to determine beforehand whether a person is "prone to accidents" or not. The unlucky person could not, unfortunately, be assisted to shed his unenviable distinction; but at least he could be dissuaded from taking up work as a lorry-driver or a window-cleaner, or in any similar vocation which involves frequent risks. But any such test will have to reach an extraordinary degree of accuracy before it can begin to be accepted with regard to employment. For a man or woman convicted of "accident proneness" will be at a discount in seeking any employment; and the suspicion that anyone might be unjustly put at this disadvantage will effectually deter a too-ready acceptance of the tests for "unluckiness."

PETROL THEFT

For the theft of 2,100 gallons of petrol from the Standard Oil Company installation at Lai Chi Kok, Ho Kam, a motor truck driver was sentenced to six months' hard labour, by E. I. Wynne Jones, at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday.

Mr. G. S. Hugh Jones, appeared for the Company, and said that the defendant had been employed by the Company in question for the past 13 years. His salary was $50 a month, and apparently the petrol was stolen from only one station as they had been able to ascertain that no other further stations had been affected.

He had intended to ask for the defendant to be committed to the Criminal Sessions, but since he (defendant) had made a clean breast of everything, he would ask for the maximum penalty to be imposed.

Mr. C. E. R. Sanderson, who appeared on behalf of the defendant, pleaded for leniency, as defendant had a clean record. There was no doubt that defendant had succumbed to sudden temptation, and he was extremely sorry for what he had done. He also asked the Magistrate to take into consideration that defendant had a wife and seven children, three of whom are still attending school.

The maximum penalty — six months' hard labour was imposed.

NO INTENTION TO DEFRAUD

Chan Cheng-nam, unemployed, who was charged with having attempted to defraud the Hong Kong-Yaumati Ferry Company, by not paying his ferry fare on Friday las., was discharged owing to insufficient evidence at the Kowloon Magistracy, when Mr. A. C. Plericks, ticket inspector, prosecuted. In discharging the defendant, Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones remarked: "If you could prove that he climbed over the gate or did something to show that he deliberately intended not to pay his fare then I could listen to you."

* * *

Wong Yin, (35), unemployed, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Police Court on Saturday for being found in the Colony after having been banished for 10 years in February last year.

* * *

Li Kau, a locksmith, was sentenced to three weeks' hard labour by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Police Court on Saturday morning for the theft of four locks from the lavatory doors of the China Buildings on Friday. He was ordered to pay $10 as compensation or serve a further 14 days.

* * *

Li Ching, (26) unemployed, was on Saturday sentenced to two months' hard labour by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Police Court for the theft of a canvas cover, the property of Mr. V. J. Smith, at No. 1 Morion Terrace.

Another charge of returning from banishment was brought against defendant, and he was sentenced to eight months' hard labour, the sentences to run consecutively.

* * *

Four months' hard labour and four strokes of the birch, or an additional two months' imprisonment, was imposed on Chau Lung, unemployed, by Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday for the theft of a purse containing $1.39 from a Chinese woman, Wong Sau-ngan.

* * *

Two magistrates, Messrs. E. I. Wynne-Jones and W. M. Thomson, occupied the bench at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday when an unemployed Chinese male, Lam Shiu-ki, was sentenced to two years' hard labour for stealing 40 cents from the pocket of Kam Man-po. In addition the defendant was also ordered to be under police supervision for a period of two years.

Defendant admitted five previous convictions, which included four for thefts from the person. He had also served 14 days' hard labour in 1930 for causing grievous bodily harm.

MISSING FILM

The brilliant Fox Film's production "Cavalcade," starring Diana Wynyard and Clive Brook, which enjoyed a very successful run in Hong Kong, is alleged to have been stolen from the distributors by an agent in Kwangsi, whose creditors foreclosed on him and took the film as part payment. Mr. A. L. Caplan, Manager of Fox Film Corpn., stated that he is at a loss as to why this particular film was pilfered as it has no interest whatsoever to the provincial cinema-goer.

THE TREASURE ARRIVES

Guards With Fixed Bayonets

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 30.

Three Government motor-lorries left Portsmouth Dockyard for London this afternoon carrying one of the most valuable loads that has ever travelled on an English road, writes a correspondent.

It is the treasure to be shown at the International Exhibition of Chinese Art at Burlington House during this winter. It was brought by the British cruiser Suffolk from Shanghai, and it arrived after a six weeks' voyage.

Estimates of its value go up to £10,000,000.

The Suffolk did not come alongside the wharf. She berthed outside the giant battleship Hood. The 100 cases containing the treasure were carried across the Hood through a guard of Marines with their fixed bayonets. This guard extended on to the dock.

I was permitted to inspect some of their cases on board the cruiser. While I did so a sentry with fixed bayonet stood beside me. Photographers were allowed to take photographs of the cases by special permission of the Commander-in-Chief at Portsmouth —under the observation of Marines standing at ease with their bayonets fixed.

The journey to London is about 75 miles. The route, however, was disclosed only when it was necessary.

Each lorry had a strong guard of armed, plain clothes police. In addition, there was an extra escort of police on motor-cycles and in motorcars, before, beside and behind the lorries.

Hampshire police acted as the extra escort to their county border. There their duty ended and they "handed over" to the Surrey police.

Instructions had been given to the Chief Constables of the counties by the Home Office.

As soon as the cavalcade and its escort reach Burlington House the Chinese Ambassador will cable the Central Government of China.

"The treasure has arrived safely in London, intact and undamaged."

Until the Chinese Museum experts arrive to unpack the treasure it will be kept under close guard.

The treasure covers a period of 3000 years—from 1500 B.C. to 1800 A.D.—in Chinese arts and crafts.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY HEAVY RAIN

Streets Flooded

Shanghai, Aug 14.

Continual downpour at 8 o'clock yesterday morning played havoc among the squatters and residents in low lying districts in Chinese territory, and the eastern and western districts of the Settlement, where many streets were flooded. An old and dilapidated Chinese house in Point Road, near Alcock Road, collapsed at about 10.30 a.m., causing injuries to the back and chest of an aged Chinese watchman.

Perhaps the only persons benefitted by the heavy rain were rickshaw pullers, who did a roaring trade. In the vicinity of the South Railway Station, Nantao, there was such a high demand for rickshaws to convey residents from alleyways to tramway stations that an acute shortage of these vehicles was felt. A similar situation was reported in many other districts.

Due to congestion in the drains many streets in the Settlement and French Concession were flooded, but the water soon receded after the rain had stopped. Towards noon, with the rays of the sun penetrating through the clouds, hope was generally entertained in low lying districts that the water would soon disappear, but further inclement weather in the afternoon brought little relief.

COUNCIL OF ACTION

Blow Dealt

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

A severe blow has been dealt at Mr. Lloyd George's Council of Action for Peace and Reconstruction by the withdrawal of the Rev. J. Scott Lidgett from the movement. It may be that this will spell the ultimate break-up of Mr Lloyd George's whole campaign, as Dr Lidgett was one of the most influential of the Churchmen who signed the original manifesto, and much of the support which it gained was undoubtedly due to the fact that he gave it his blessing. He is not the first minister of religion to have resigned from the Council, and it is obvious now that the Churches, upon whom Mr Lloyd George was relying for disguising the true object of his campaign, are becoming aware that the Council has been brought in o being for political purposes and nothing else. As he is secretary of the National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches, Dr Lidgett's withdrawal has a very deep significance. It have its effect on all the other signatories to the manifesto, and in his anti-Government General Election fight Mr Lloyd George may well find himself a leader without followers.

THE SERJEANT-AT-ARMS

Members of Parliament have heard with some surprise that Admiral Sir Colin Keppel, Serjeant-at-Arms of the House of Commons, is to retire at the end of next week. He has always seemed such a necessary figure in Parliamentary life that they cannot imagine the House without him. This is hardly to be wondered at, because Sir Colin has been the custodian of law and order at St Stephen's for 20 years, and, while M.P.s have come and gone, he has always been the faithful occupant of his special seat at the doorway to the Chamber. One of his duties is to remove recalcitrant members from the House when necessary, and it says a great deal for the members as a body that the duty is one which he has very rarely to exercise.

A NEW INDIAN AIR MAIL

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

An air mail service between Karachi, Bombay and Madras has now commenced after satisfactory trials of the new Miles Merlin Low-wing monoplanes which have been assembled at Poona. The machines have a top speed of 160 m.p.h. and a cruising speed of 140 m.p.h. They were built specially to the order of Tatas Airway and can carry a third of a ton of cargo or four passengers.

The new service is important owing to the forthcoming extension to Ceylon, linking Karachi and Colombo in a two days' flight. The Government plans to establish radio stations at Madras, Hyderabad, Bombay and Ahmedabad, to improve the air weather reports.

MEDICAL OFFICERS AS PILOTS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

An amendment to the King's Regulations and Air Council Instructions provides that a medical officer who has qualified as a pilot may, when facilities exist at the unit to which he is posted and provided he is medically fit, keep himself in flying practice. Unless, however, he has flown solo during the preceding three months and has had solo flying experience in the type of aircraft which it is proposed to fly, the C.O. will ensure that he receives adequate dual instruction in that type before he flies solo.

ESTATE DUTY

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend the law relating to Estate Duty and to provide for the payment of any such duty, which may be due, before a successor is registered without probate or administration.

The Estate Duty Ordinance (No 3 of 1932) extends generally to the New Territories (under section 3 of the Interpretation Ordinance, 1911) but by section 6 (4) land there situate, in respect of which a successor has been registered under the first clause of section 29 of the New Territories Regulation Ordinance, 1910 (No. 34 of 1910), has been exempted where it does not form part of an estate of which probate or letters of administration have been granted by the Supreme Court.

The effect of section 2 of this amending Ordinance will be to remove the exemption, as from the 1st January, 1937, and to substitute a new exemption not limited to land, under which property situate in the New Territories, other than New Kowloon, will be exempt from duty where the principal value of the estate does not exceed two thousand dollars, and property situate elsewhere in the Colony where the principal value of the estate not exceed five hundred dollars.

The Schedules to the Estate Duty Ordinance do not provide for the payment of any duty where the principal value of the estate does not exceed five hundred dollars, having regard to the provisions of section 4 thereof it is considered desirable to make express provision in section 6 of that Ordinance for the exemption of these small estates.

Other exemptions are made in respect of temples for the worship of ancestors.

THE KING'S ABYSSINIAN ORDERS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Of the two Orders—the Gold Chains of Solomon and of Sheba—which were presented yesterday to the King and Queen as Abyssinia's Jubilee tributes, one has a long history.

The Chain of Solomon is the oldest and highest order of Ethiopia. Its origin belongs to the mists of history. It was worn for centuries by the ancient Kings of Ethiopia.

In 1784 it went out of use, but it was revived in 1853 for the coronation of the illfated Emperor Theodore, whose conduct provoked the Napier expedition in 1868. After his defeat at Magdala, Theodore committed suicide.

GOLD AND DIAMONDS

It is an elaborate affair of solid gold, surmounted with diamond decorations and a miniature of the Imperial Crown of Ethiopia. There are two figures, one representing the Queen of Sheba approaching Solomon and the other Ethiopia stretching out her hands to God.

Cut into the chain are the words: "The Lord is Our Strength and Refuge."

The Chain of Sheba is a new Order, created four years ago for the Coronation of the present Emperor.

LUCKY ESCAPE

A miraculous escape from death was encountered by Mrs. J. H. Ruttonjee and her daughter, while driving their car on the Castle Peak Road on Friday last, when they were taking Dr. Samy to attend Mrs. Ruttonjee's son, who is recovering from a recent operation, at their seaside bungalow just past Tsin Wan.

The incident occurred whist the car was rounding a bend in the road, the chauffeur found himself almost on top of a lame man, accompanied by a woman. In an effort to avoid hitting them he had to swerve violently, and the car struck the hillside then swung towards the precipitous slope to the sea, stopping somehow on the very verge.

The lame man was struck by the car, despite the chauffeur's efforts to avoid him, but was only slightly bruised.

STRIKING TRIBUTE TO THE PRINCE OF WALES

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Colonel the Hon. Herbert Bruce, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, before leaving London on Saturday for Canada after a month's visit to this country, paid a striking tribute to the Prince of Wales.

Colonel Bruce was received by the Prince at St. James's Palace, and for half an hour they discussed Canada and Canadian affairs. "He knows the Dominion well, especially the West, where he has his ranch, and he showed the greatest interest in agricultural conditions and crop prospects," said Colonel Bruce.

"I found His Royal Highness considerably changed since I saw him last—eight years ago. The same charm of manner, the same ready smile are both as conspicuous as ever, but he has now the graver seriousness of a man of affairs."

Yangtze Rapid Steamship Company's Finances

Shanghai, Aug 14.

The finaicial transactions between the Yangtze Rapid Steamship Company and the China Finance Corporation were investigated yesterday, in the United States Court for China, before Judge Milton J. Helmick, when the case of Mr. J. W. Rosenberg v. the Yangtze Rapid Steamship Company was heard. Mr. Rosenberg is suing for $12,050 as back salary. He asserts that the company has suspended business for the past year, and has not discharged its debts. On July 29, the Court gave judgment in his favour, and the present case is the result of that judgment being unsatisfied.

Mr. P. W. Faison, attorney for the plaintiff claimed that the firm is capable of paying the money, whereas Mr. Lansing Hoyt, president of the company, asserted that all the assets of his firm were turned over to the China Finance corporation. Mr. Rosenberg asked that a receiver be appointed and an injunction issued restraining the company from discharging any debts to others and another restraining creditors from suing the company until the present case is settled.

It was stated in evidence that, in October, 1934, the Yangtze Rapid Steamship Company transferred and assigned all its assets to the China Finance Corporation in trust as security for payment to the Finance Banking Corporation, a subsidiary company of the China Finance, of large sums of money lent by China Finance to the Yangtze Rapid SS. Co. through the subsidiary company. The Yangtze Rapid SS. Co. executed a mortage and trust deed covering all property in favour of the China Finance Corporation as trustees for $1,000,000 worth of debentures. When the Yangtze Rapid SS. Co. defaulted, the China Finance took possession and sold the property in June, 1935. The property, consisting of nine ships, was sold for the best possible price, but for less than the mortage.

Mr. C. S. Franklin, representing the China Finance, asserted the property was sold without any liens. he said the China Finance Corporation had to pay out $400,000.

Mr. Robert H. Parker, a director of the China Finance Corporation, said he was elected a director of the Yangtze Rapid SS. Co. last December, with a view to looking after the interests of the China Finance Corporation. He spoke of the sale of ships after the Yangtze Rapid SS. C. defaulted on the mortgage.

Mr. Lansing Hoyt, president of Yangtze Rapid SS. Co., said the company had a claim against the American Securities Corporation for damages on lighter No. 20. Mr. Hoyt stated that he asked for $15,000 for himself and $10,000 for the Yangtze Rapid SS. Co. Regarding the loan made by the Finance Banking Corporation to the Yangtze Rapid SS. C. in the autumn of 1933, the notes on that loan, he said, were paid promptly until the summer of 1934. He went on to say that the Yangtze SS. Co. had no assets, no property, and no furniture; all of it had been handed over to the China Finance Corporation. The company owed nothing to the China Finance, but it did owe money to private creditors. Capt. Rosenberg had not been paid. The others had been paid by the China Finance Corporation as the trustee.

Mr. Faison established the existence of a claim by Mr. Hoyt and the Yangtze Rapid Steamship Company against the American Securities Corporation, but a further attampt to find if the company had a claim against the American Asiatic Underwriters for $400,000 was answered by Mr. Hoyt with the statement that the claim was settled in February this year, before the sale of the property by the China Finance Corporation.

Mr. Reginald Brown, chief accountant for the Yangtze Rapid SS. Company, identified a number of documents which had to do with the transactions between the Company and the China Finance Corporation, and explained the financial condition of the company.

Judge Helmick reserved judgment until he could read the memoranda which Mr. Faison and Mr. Franklin will give him.

DIAMONDS SEIZED BY POLICE

Jewellery Store Suspected Of Smuggling

Shanghai, Aug 14.

Acting upon information that a large Chinese jewellery store at 639 Nanking Road was suspected of having smuggled diamonds to Shanghai, a party of Louza detectives headed by Det.-Sub-Inspr. Duncan, on behalf of the Customs authorities, applied to the First Special District Court for a search warrant and carried out a search at the store premises on Monday afternoon.

The search resulted in the discovery of the following:—244 diamond rings, 21 pairs of diamond earrings, 13 diamond brooches, 26 diamond bracelets, 15 packets containing 1,634 small diamonds and seven account books.

An application was made to the court yesterday for the disposal of the valuables. The court ordered the valuables to be detained by the police till August 20 and the account books to be handed over to the Maritime Customs for immediate inquiries.

According to a representative of the jewellery store at 639 Nanking Road, the total value of the detained jewels is about $70,000.

RICKSHAW PULLERS

Shanghai, Aug 14.

Additional rickshaw pullers were registered with the French Police on Monday and yesterday, making a total of more than 1,300 now licensed. Of the rickshaws detained by the Police, which numbered approximately 400, only 20 were in the compound of the Police Headquarters yesterday, the majority having been returned to their owners.

At a meeting of the pullers held in a tea shop in Loh Ka Pang district, the following resolutions were passed:

"That the Nantao office of the Rickshaw Owners Association be requested to ask Mr. Tu Yueh-sung to negotiate with the French Consul-General for medical expenses for the thirteen injured coolies".

"That the Nantao office be asked to engage a lawyer to defend a coolie named Sih Da-chih, who is in custody on a charge of assaulting a policeman in the French Concession".

"That the Nanto office be further asked to instruct the owners to defray are registration fees charged by the C.M.P. authorities".

"That Mr. Tu Yueh-sung be requested to negotiate with the French Police for an improvement in the treatment accorded to pullers."

CUSTODY OF MOSS CHILD DECIDED

Shanghai, Aug 14.

An order by H.M. Supreme Court restraining Mr. G. W. Moss, petitioner, in a recent divorce case, from taking the son of the marriage out of the jurisdiction of the court was dissolved yetserday, the custody of the child being given to him.

The order of restraint was issued on August 7, following a hurried application by Mrs. A. Moss and Mr. E. Morgan, through Mr. K. E. Newman, who defended the divorce action, and was served on Mr. Moss a bare quarter an hour before the ship in which he was sailing with his son was due to leave.

Mr. Moss immediately landed his luggage, and applied in chambers for the custody of the child. Counsel concerned were Mr. H. A. Reeks, for Mr. Moss, and Mr. E. Hartopp, for Mrs. Moss. After a two days' hearing, the court decided in favour of the petitioner, and he is now free to leave with his son when and where he likes.

SUICIDE EPIDEMIC IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai, Aug 14.

An epidemic of attempted suicides seems to have swept the French Concession in the last few weeks. Two cases were reported yesterday, one of them fatal.

Mrs. Nayemtzova, a Russian dancer at the Fantasio cabaret, living at Tracey Terrace, drank a glass of permanganate of potassium. Taken without delay to the Maresca Hospital, she was saved from the effects of the poison.

A Chinese, Zi Tse-kai, aged 51, an accountant in a grocery shop in Rue de Weikwei, was taken to Ste. Marie Hospital, after having swallowed a corrosive poison. He died an hour after his arrival at the hospital.

PUBLIC WORKS IN BRITAIN

A new policy involving a very interesting experiment is shown in the decision of the British Government to guarantee the expenditure of £40,000,000 on London transport. A big programme of public works to stimulate trade and absorb unemployment has been urged time and again but with the exception of the support given to the big Cunard liners, the Government has generally resisted this demand. That a sound general policy was more beneficial to trade than direct intervention in industry, as expressed by Mr. Chamberlain, indicates the Government's attitude. Many of its most stalwart supporters, however, are not satisfied. The latter have pointed out that sound finance has produced cheap money, and that the moment when money is cheap is the right one to choose for investing it in important development work.

Behind this movement is Mr. Lloyd George, who has presented to the Cabinet a comprehensive programme of public works which might be undertaken on a large scale. It is already apparent that the Government will not accept Mr. Lloyd George's programme in its entirety, but it is equally clear that it is impressed by the public feeling created, and that it will unbend to the extent of adopting some similar if lesser schemes. Mr. Chamberlain's latest plan is one of them.

The need for improving the systems of electrified suburban railways to the north and east of London has long been urgently felt. The lack of adequate transport in these regions had become a serious grievance, and the railway authorities had only been deterred from undertaking new construction on their own credit by the enormous capital outlay it would involve. Government guarantee will give cheap capital, and the money invested will earn its dividends. Work which will give employment to thousands of persons, including those in the distressed areas, will be provided, and London will be rendered permanently better off.

The investment of course, may be described as a socialistic enterprise. But it is of a novel kind. The Government will not perform the work itself, nor will it set up a new public corporation to do it. It will create by statute, a company which will raise the money, guaranteed by the state, from public subscription, and it will invest this money in existing undertakings, namely, The London Passenger Transport Board and two main line railway companies. The capital is to be repaid within twenty five years.

The experiment will be of the greatest importance. The lessons learned from it will be applicable to other undertakings. It is not likely to be the last for already several comparable schemes are being pressed upon the Government's attention.

THE PALESTINE MANDATE

Mr. De Rothschild (Isle of Ely, L.), referring to the Palestine mandate, said that Article 18 had been interpreted to mean that Palestine was not allowed to differentiate, in any tariffs which it imposed, between any members of the League of Nations. That interpretation had given rise to some of the most unjust situations that could be imagined and which were not foreseen when the mandate was formulated.

Palestine suffered more than any other country from the Japanese dumping of silk and other goods. Japan, on the other hand, did not take any goods from Palestine, and Palestine was quite helpless under the mandate. Only recently an important silk firm in Palestine which had sunk £80,000 in its business had to close down because it was ruined by Japanese dumping. He hoped that the question would be gone into by the Colonial Secretary and brought to the notice of the Mandates Commission for a further and clearer interpretation. There was vast scope for increased immigration into Palestine at present. Indeed, there was a very great dearth of labour in Palestine, which had led to a severe rise in prices and in the cost of living, and also to an influx of workers from the Jewish agricultural colonies into the towns. If the landowners became employers of cheap labour as in South America, that would be a reversal of the policy of Jewish colonization. Immigration from neighbouring Asiatic countries had been permitted, while Jewish immigration had been restricted.

Palestine was the only country to which the Jews who were being driven from Germany by persecution could go. Many of these young Jews, formerly trained in the liberal professions, had received training in artisan centres, and there was a great demand for them in Palestine. But they could not go there unless they produced £250 or were able to get on to the very limited emigration schedule permitted by the Administration. He urged that the Secretary of State and the High Commissioner should not be so hard faced to these people while entertaining so many guests from the Hauran, Egypt, and Arabia. To-day the coffers of Palestine were full of Jewish shekels, but the country was still barred to thousands of unhappy, capable, and industrious Jews.

THE EDUCATIONAL SIDE

Mr. Pickthorn (Cambridge University, U.) referred to the educational side of Colonial policy. He said that every truth about the political and administrative value of educational development applied with particular force to the development of agricultural education. Another educational question was that of the establishment in East and West Africa—or at least preparation for the establishment—of University institutions. Without the establishment of such institutions they would have at the least disaffection and a drift foreign universities. It was also an urgent Imperial need to strengthen the educational system in Hong Kong and Malaya, and he suggested that educational institutions might be improved by raising the status of educational officers and directors and by giving them a sense that they had a share in guiding policy.

Colonel Wedgwood (Newcastle-under-Lyme, Ind.) urged the Secretary State to provide real education in the Colonies—education for citizenship rather than vocational training. He was in favour of unrestricted immigration into Palestine and into every British Colony.

Mr. Janner said that members of the House with whom he had visited Palestine were filled with wonder at the achievement displayed there. The history of Palestine during recent years would become an outstanding illustration of what energy combined with anxious idealism could effect.

Dr. McLean (Glasgow, Tradeston, U.) said that owing to the establishment of markets for colonial produce in this country and some foreign countries through preferences and trade agreements the Colonies were able to plan their economic and social development on something like a secure basis. If they pushed ahead too far with development in primitive countries, and when there was no economic foundation for it, it might be a disaster to the natives. It was necessary to hasten slowly. Proposals for starting manufacturing industries in a colony should be examined cautiously with due regard to the welfare of a colony as a whole and its dependence upon primary production.

ELECTION IN FIJI

Mr. Banfield (Wednesbury, Lab.) said he hoped that the Secretary for the Colonies would carry into actual practice his belief in democracy. He (Mr. Banfield) had received from Fiji a complaint that in May action was proposed, without any previous consultation or warning, to replace the elective system there by a system of nomination. This was carried by a majority of the Council. Resolutions had been passed at meetings consisting on the one hand of Europeans and on the other hand of Indians at which it was declared by representative people in the colony that they had no wish after 30 years of the elective system to be under a nominative Council. He hoped that the Secretary of State would give the matter his attention. He also called attention to the serious plight of the people in Mauritius and other West Indian islands which were almost wholly dependent on the production of sugar. What policy was the Government going to adopt to deal with this problem?

Mr. N. MacLean (Glasgow, Govan, Lab.) asked for information with regard to a loan which had been made to a company in British Honduras and what security had been given for it. There was a Budget deficiency in the colony which was practically the same as the amount of the reduction in land tax paid by a particular company. Referring to Gibraltar he stated that representations which had been made to the Secretary for the Colonies asking for a more representative form of Government in that colony had been met by merely negative answers. There was practically no workmen's compensation in Gibraltar, and representations which had been made to the Governor and the Council on that matter had gone for nothing. Government employees in Gibraltar had suffered the economy cuts and there was a reluctance to return to the old standard of remuneration.

He had known the Secretary of State since he was a laddie. There was a great future in front of him, and he practically controlled the future of millions of people in his office. He trusted that the work which the right hon. gentleman did in that office would not merely bring credit to himself but as both he and his father would certainly wish, would bring justice and a new vista of life to those people in the Colonies.

GOLD COAST ORDINANCES

Mr. D. Foot (Dundee, L.) referred to two Ordinances in connection with the Gold Coast Colony which he said raised important questions of principle. The first, which was a draft Ordinance, permitted the Governor to suspend or depose any Chief who appeared to him to have contravened any of the provisions of the Ordinance. This was the first time in the history of the Gold Coast Colony that the Governor had taken power to suspend or depose a Chief. Up to now it had always rested with the people of the tribe to set up or depose their Chief. It would be the Governor who would decide whether a Chief was guilty of a breach of the Ordinances and there appeared to be no right of appeal to any independent tribunal for a Chief deposed by the Governor. The Governor was also authorized to make "Such other and further provisions as he may consider expedient" in giving effect to the Ordinance. This indicated that the "New Despotism" was raising its ugly head in the Colonies. He hoped that the Secretary for the Colonies would consider representations from the Chiefs before tendering advise to the King on the subject of this Ordinance. The Second Ordinance, the Criminal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1934, contained a section which was a disgrace to any Government and any Governor who sanctioned it. It permitted the Governor in Council to prohibit the importation of any book or newspaper which contained any seditious words or writing. The Governor could decide what literature should be allowed into the colony.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

Mr. M. MacDonald, replying to the debate, said that he was glad that the question of the shipping service to Cyprus had been raised. He hoped that the shipping authorities would take note of it, and if the Colonial Office could help them to reach a decision to start such a service it would do its best to do so.

An air service to Cyprus had been considered, but Cyprus was rather awkwardly placed from that point of view. It had been possible to start certain agricultural developments and administrative reforms in Malta during the period of provisional government, and the island had benefited considerably. A state of emergency could go on indefinitely. The Government wanted to see mui tsai disappear in Hong Kong and elsewhere as soon as practicable. The Colonial Office were tackling the problem of the denudation of the soil in Kenya. Only yesterday the Colonial Development Fund authorized a grant of £23,000 to the colony. The Government had already come to the assistance of white settlers and had advanced something like £300 a head.

In 1933 30,327 Jewish immigrants arrived in Palestine, and in 1934 42,359, and for the first six months of 1935 28,121. That was a clear indication that the High Commissioner welcomed into Palestine as many Jews as it was economically possible to receive. With regard to Fiji he had made arrangements to test opinion in the island before any decision was reached. He had informed the Chiefs in the Gold Coast who were protesting against the Ordinance giving extra powers to the Governor that he would consider any representations they might make. With regard to the other Ordinance no newspapers, pamphlets, books, leaflets, or literature had been prohibited and no prosecution had taken place. Therefore in practice he did not think it would turn out to be the tyrannous thing which Mr. D. Foot had suggested.

The Report of the Vote was carried by 310 votes to 76—Government majority, 234.

Novel Methods Used

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

The Hague, Aug 17.

In the strike which has broken out among the crews of vessels in the River Maas, a novel weapon in the fight has been adopted, inasmuch as the crews have brought to a standstill all traffic by anchoring the vessels broadside on, end to end, across the river.

The captain of one barge drew a revolver and threatened the strikers if they would not allow his vessel to pass, but had to retreat when he was showered with stones that smashed all the windows of the barge cabins. Even the river police are powerless, as altogether 380 vessels are tightly wedged into a solid obstacle.

The Government has sent a detachment of soldiery to take up a position on the shore to be ready for emergencies.

The strike is chiefly about wages. Transocean Kuo Min.

TREASURE OF OLD LONDON

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 30.

The gradual rebuilding of the City of London is yielding archaeological "finds."

During excavation for the foundations of the recently opened Scottish Widows' Insurance building in Cornhill, opposite the site of the old Forum, a quantity of Roman pottery was found, which now makes a museum out of the boardroom lobby.

Most of it is Samian ware, with a dark red glaze. Though it dates from 100 A.D. the stamp of the Gaulish potter, Surdillus, is still as clear as the stamp on a modern pot.

ARMED MEN GET NOTHING

The unpleasent experience of being held up armed robbers, befell the inmates of No. 83 Connaught Road, Central about 8.30 p.m. yesterday, when four men armed with revolvers gained admittance into the flat. The startled inmates were huddled together into one side of the floor space, whilst the robbers made a systematic search of the premises. They must have been interrupted in their work, for they hurridly decamped before they could lay their hands on anything of value.

If Gossip We Must

(By "ONLOOKER").

Alas, for these very uncertain mails!

Such a lot of news I sent from the North never arrived, and you did not hear nearly all I had to tell you. My impressions of Peking for instance. . . .

Great beauty in the midst of awful squalor. Lovely sounds of bells—even the pigeons have whistles attached to their tails, and their music is exquisite as they fly over the city in droves—And the legation quarter was abloom with mimosa, and the sweet smell of these lovely flowering trees had a haunting fragrance I shall have forget.

From the top of Coal Hill the view over the Imperial yellow roofs of the Forbidden City, and out towards the Temple of Heaven was one of the most glorious sights I have ever seen, and of course quite unlike anything also in the world, but I have to admit that the tawdry interiors, modern attempts at improvement, and the general filth of the streets made it impossible for me to be really uplifted.

The dust was so ghastly! The only way one could bear to go out was with a piece of stuff wrapped round one's mouth, like a respirator, and when "Onlooker" finally got back to her lovely clean ship she felt so relieved at being able to enjoy the luxury of a bath.

There were such a lot of familiar faces in Peking, who most of them have returned to the fold now. Mrs. Boswell is the most intrepid traveller. She had been doing the Gorges most thoroughly, all by herself, and she was the most perfect example of a sightseer in Peking, with her enormous Guide book and her enviable faculty for only seeing beauty and overlooking the sordid bits.

PLEASANT SURPRISE

It was a very pleasant surprise finding one of the Hong Kong Hotel managers functioning at the Waggon Lits. And after a few days in a picturesque Chinese House, full of local colour we were glad to take refuge in the solid British comfort of that admirable hostelry. And what a lot of "Lovelies" there were to be seen. I loved the restaurant gowns effected by the smart American women—high in the neck and long in the sleeve, but trailing as to length. Most of the Hong Kong "Well Knowns" stayed at the Waggon Lits including Colonel and Mrs. Mathews, Colonel and Mrs. Fordham, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, and Captain and Mrs. Harvey, and we had a glimpse of Colonel and Mrs. Lewis there too, but of course they are all back in Hong Kong now.

Mr. A. W. (Tom) Hayward is one of the old school of thought seldom met with to-day. For him cricket is not simply a pastime. It is "the" pastime and he knows no other

Tom has a great cricket career behind him and many cricket seasons still to go. He has played Interport for Shanghai on five on six occasions, and for Hong Kong more than once. The last two seasons his Captaincy has led the Hong Kong Cricket Club side to the top of the League and in the coming seasons he will probably do the same.

You heard all about Tsingtau by night, but the letter telling you of my meeting with Lynn Cowan of Cowan and Baillie fame was lost.

I was swimming at Edgewater Mansions, that glorious artificial sea bathing place with its perfect diving apparatus, and canvas sunning platforms; and lo and behold! there was Lynn Cowan in the water! We greeted each other with great pleasure, and you will be glad to hear that that popular pair of entertainers are coming back here in the Autumn. Meantime they love Tsingtau! They swim all the morning and go out fishing in the afternoon in their own sampan. You should have seen Cowan setting forth after tiffin with all the tackle, and enormous baskets of bait. He sure had great expectations!

YOKOHAMA WONDERFUL

Captain and Mrs. Portman were staying at the Edgewater too. And I saw Mr. Cummings of Butterfield and Swire who has since returned to Hong Kong. He must find this climate depressing after enjoying the lovely northern air.

Yokohama was wonderful, and lots of Hong Kong folk appeared at odd places. One of the first buildings I stepped into was the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank. Everybody was gazing at the roof where the lamps were swinging about like anything. There had just been a small "quake," and we had never felt it in the Street.

Roger Stilliard—who used to be such a popular figure in rugger circles here was in great form; and I heard that Mrs. Andrew (Virginia Varty that was) is very flourishing, and the new baby takes after its Mother and is very beautiful of course.

BEAUTIFUL HONG KONG

Dancing at the New Grand I saw a very familiar face, late of Hong Kong—but for the life of me I cannot remember either her single or her married names, but I just know that she was a popular figure here about two years ago or more, but did not stay here very long. Can anyone enlighten me? The "Empress of Japan" came in while we were alongside, and who should I see dancing but Mr. and Mrs. (P. W. D.) Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wild, Mr. Monaghan, and another well-known Fanling figure whom I do not know by name. They were all en route for different Japanese resorts, and most of them have returned by now much refreshed, we hope, for their trip.

How lovely it is to get some decent weather again. When the sun shines in Hong Kong one realises afresh that there is nowhere in the world quite so beautiful, and however far we travel there is never anything quite so lovely as our sunset over the Islands.

MR. BALDWIN AND A NOVEMBER ELECTION

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Parliament will reassemble on either October 22 or 29. The Government has not yet made up its mind which. The choice of date will depend largely on whether the Government decides in the meantime to go to the country in November.

It can be said on the best authority that the Government has so far not made up its mind, or even tried to make up its mind, when it will appeal to the electors. It is a question mainly for Mr. Baldwin, and he will take it with him to Aix and turn it over while he drinks the waters.

But while the decision is for Mr. Baldwin it is events which will really impose the decision. If towards the end of the recess it looks as though the situation is favourable than it is likely to be next year, Mr. Baldwin will take the plunge.

ITALY MAY THROW DOWN CHALLENGE AT GENEVA

Paris Talks To End In Stalemate?

LAVAL IMPATIENT: BRITAIN INSISTS ON AN EARLY REPLY

Rome, August 18.

It is believed in Rome that the Paris conference will end in a stalemate and will be followed by a crisis in Geneva when Italy may throw down a challenge to Abyssinia and Great Britain if an attempt is made to discuss the Italo-Abyssinian dispute

The proposals for the settlement of the Abyssinia dispute have been submitted to Signor Mussolini by the Anglo-French governments, according to a well-informed French source. The proposals which are described as "suggestions" are that as far as Britain and the French are concerned, Abyssinia will be left open for Italian economic development. They are based on the Anglo-Italian agreement of 1925 and the French-Italian agreement of this year.

Britain reserves the right over Lake Tsana and the Nile tributaries while France asks only for safeguarding rights concerning the Djibouti and Addis Ababa railway.

In the meantime the talks are hanging fire, pending the desired submission of Signor Mussolini's terms in black and white. M. Laval is rather impatient at the hitch because of his daughter, Jose's marriage to Count Rene de Chambrun which takes place on Tuesday and he doesn't want the Conference to reach the crux at that particular moment.

The "Echo de Paris" says it is becoming increasingly obvious that Britain and Italy are engaged in a trial of strength or rather determination. The Conference is not meeting further to-day by Mr. Eden and M. Laval will have a forty-five minutes conversation this afternoon.—Reuter.

A TRIAL OF DETERMINATION

UNEASINESS PREVAILS

Paris, August 18.

Uneasiness still prevails in French circles after the meeting between M. Laval and Baron Aloisi. The instructions received by the Italian delegate this morning is not considered to clear up two points.

Firstly, they appear to discard the suggestions presented as a basis for possible discussion without bringing forward anything definite in their place, and secondly, they avoid Mr. Eden's desire to clear up what are the Italian demands. M. Laval's meeting with Mr. Eden was to inform him regarding the latest exchange of views with Baron Aloisi.—Reuter.

WILL NOT WAIT

The British delegation will not wait more than two or three days longer for Mussolini's reply to the Franco-British suggestions made to Baron Aloisi, so British quarters stated to-night.

"The situation must be cleared up one way or other by the middle of next week." It is still possible there may be conversations to-morrow but the general impression in Franco-British quarters to-night were markedly pessimistic.—Reuter.

CONSTANT TOUCH

Rome, Aug. 18.

Baron Aloisi has been in constant telephonic touch with the Foreign Office here. Authoritive circles are most reticent as regards what is happening in Paris but it is understood that Britain and France have submitted certain important proposals to the Italian Government and that the Italian Foreign Office wished urgently to get in touch with Signor Mussolini who, however, left Rome this afternoon for a motor tour of inspection of the South Italian Blackshirts who have been mobilised for service in Africa.

Addressing 12,000 of the 23rd Division in Isernia, Il Duce is reported to have declared "we shall go forward until we achieve a Fascist Empire. I know you will do your duty with iron discipline until all goals have been attained."—Reuter

NOT ENTIRELY AGREED

Paris, Aug. 17.

Beside the Anglo-French suggestions which were practically to leave Abyssinia open for Italian economic development, it is reported that Anglo-French financial assistance has been suggested for Italian development in the form of a tripartite financial exploitation.

While M. Laval and Mr. Anthony Eden were completely agreed as regards economic concessions to Italy, Britain opposes any political concessions by the French Government, but envisaged, however, the possibility of granting, with the consent of Negus, certain guarantees to Italy, such as the presence of Italian advisers in the different branches of the Abyssinian administration, it is understood including the Abyssinian army.

The French consider this a guarantee of Italian security but it is understood that Mr. Eden did not agree to the proposal of financial assistance, nor the question of Italian advisers, pending the receipt of Signor Mussolini's observations in that connection.—Reuter.

Paris, August 18.

Baron Aloisi visited M. Laval and had a conversation lasting ninety minutes. Mr. Anthony Eden also had an hour's talk with M. Laval after which he (Laval) announced that the negotiations were proving difficult.

The Tripartite Conference is meeting at 3.30 p.m. Mr. Warriner, the American Charge D'Affaires in Paris also discussed the situation with Mr. Anthony Eden.—Reuter.

AWAITING ORDERS

Paris, Aug. 17.

A further meeting of the tripartite conference expected for this morning was postponed, but the talks were possibly to have been resumed in the afternoon. The reason for the delay was understood to be that Baron Aloisi is awaiting instructions from Rome.

CONFERENCE HELD UP

Another message from Paris states that it appears probable that the tripartite conference will be resumed before next Tuesday. The meeting expected yesterday morning was postponed to enable Baron Aloisi to obtain instructions from Rome.

Mr. Eden and M. Laval previously intimated that further progress is impossible until they receive Signor Mussolini's minimum demands.—Reuter.

SHARP CRITICISM

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Rome, Aug 17.

With the opening of the three-Power conference at Pairs, the Italian press adopts a still sharper tone in criticism of any attempt to thwart Italy's intentions and demands concerning Abyssinia, which are even more uncompromisingly formulated.

"The control of Abyssinia, no matter in what way it is effected," declares the "Tribuna," "whether as a mandate, a protectorate or as a dominion, has become a vital necessity for the Italian people. In other words, it is an enterprise, which to renounce or sacrifice or to compromise would be worse than direct failure."

The paper points out that to-day there are only two factors which run counter to Italy's will. Abyssinia's own interests and the British opposition. The Abyssinian interests are dismissed by the paper as having no moral value, the same arguments always employed by the Italian press being brought forward, namely, that Abyssinia cannot be regarded as possessing equal rights, let alone as a State, in the proper sense of the word.

The "Tribuna" finally characterises Abyssinia's membership of the League of Nations as worthless, since, it alleges, Abyssinia's entry into the League of Nations was contrary to the statutes.

AT A STANDSTILL

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received August 18, 4.50 a.m.)

Paris, Aug. 17.

The three power conference has come to a temporary standstill pending Mussolini's reply to the proposals put forward by England and France with the consent of Abyssinia. No meeting took place on Saturday in the forenoon or in the afternoon, but M. Laval informed pressmen that conversations may possibly be resumed on Saturday night.

Meanwhile Laval and Eden had another conversation with the object of formulating a joint Franco-British scheme which, it is stated in informed circles, is by no means representing a comprehensive plan for a lasting settlement of the Italo-Abyssinian conflict, but rather concerned with the possibilities of Italy's economic expansion to Abyssinia.

The current rumours are that France and British are willing to grant loans for the promotion of Italy's exploitation for Abyssinian mineral wealth. It is stressed that the economic proposals, if accepted by Mussolini, would afford a basis for further negotiations concerning the question of political guarantees. Inasmuch as Italy has not yet stated her minimum demands, the discussions appear to be floating in the air for the time being.—Transocean Kuo Min.

PESSIMISTIC VIEW

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Rome, Aug. 17.

A message from Paris states that political quarters there are inclined to take rather a pessimistic view with regard to the prospects of the three-power conference, according to the press this morning, which states that almost a complete deadlock had been reached during the first day's deliberations.

The only authoritative information concerning the results of to-day's sessions was a meagre statement by M. Laval, that "the deliberations on Friday were solely devoted to the examination and definition of the various treaties regulating the British, French and Italian relations with regard to Abyssinia," and that it would be left to a later meeting to find means for a peaceful settlement of the conflict.

DEFINITE DEMANDS

The examination of the treaties in question, however, the papers assert, showed clearly that the British and Italian viewpoints are hardly reconcilable.

Baron Aloisi is declared to have avoided the statement of definite demands by his Government in detail, although expressly requested by Mr. Anthony Eden to put the Italian cards on the table. The Italian delegate, it is said, twice telephoned Signor Mussolini in order to inform the Duce of Mr. Eden's request, as well as the general tendency of the negotiations, but failed to obtain the latter's permission to reveal the Italian intentions completely.

Signor Mussolini, says the "Echo de Paris," sees no reason why he should be in a hurry, for the new proposals are submitted to him daily, and Italy has time until September 4.

FRENCH AFFECTED

It is becoming more and more apparent that Britain and Italy are trying the'r strength against each other, the paper continues, pointing out that the outcome of this struggle would necessarily affect the French policy also.

The first day of the negotiations clearly showed up the great difficulties standing in the way of agreement, says the "Journal," which asserts that considerable pessimism prevails in British quarters. The foreign editor of the paper, however, denies the existence of "a united Anglo-French front against Italy," and asserts that "each of the three parties concerned is playing its own game and assuming a different attitude."—Reuter.

OFF TO AFRICA

Rome, Aug. 16.

Signor Mussolini's son-in-law, Count Ciano, has been transferred to the Air Squadron for service in East Africa, as from August 24. He will, however, retain his post as Minister for Press Propaganda.—Reuter.

WHAT ITALY WANTS

Paris, Aug. 16.

The primary aim of the British and French delegates to the three-power conference here is to discover Italy's precise and minimum claims upon Ethiopia. Unless this can be accomplished no real progress can be made towards a settlement of the Italo-Abyssinian controversy, since the Emperor of Abyssinia cannot very well be expected to state the maximum he will offer.

The British and French Governments have been trying vainly since May to obtain this information from Italy.

Baron Aloisi, Italian chief delegate to the conference, despite a long telephone conversation with Rome after lunch to-day had not "delivered the goods," a spokesman said at the afternoon meeting and the conversation had to be adjourned until to-morrow, with the gap slightly narrowed but far from bridged.

ABYSSINIA WILLING

The British and French delegations are convinced that Abyssinia is willing, or prepared to go the very limit to effect conciliation, and that if Italy frankly states her demands they will to a great extent be met by the Negus. It is understood he contemplates guarantees for the protection of Italian colonists in Abyssinia, and economic facilities, including rights in mining, rail and road construction, and agricultural development.—Reuter.

LENGTHY TALKS

The opening three-powor talks continued until 7.45 p.m. when M. Laval emerged from the conference room at the Quai d'Orsay and beckoned the crowd of waiting journalists, and while Mr. Eden and Baron Aloisi stood beside him he read the statement they had agreed upon.

He said they had examined diplomatic documents concerning the relations of the three Governments with Ethiopia and at a subsequent meeting they would seek some means of settling peacefully the Italo-Abyssinian dispute.—Reuter.

GENERAL SUBJECTS

London, Aug. 16.

The three-power conversations began at the Quai D'Orsay this morning with a meeting at which Monsieur Laval, Mr. Eden and Baron Aloisi were alone present. This lasted for nearly two hours, after which the members of the delegations were entertained to luncheon by the French Premier.

At a resumed meeting this evening what is understood to have been a fairly general discussion directed at obtaining in detail a statement in regard to Italian grievances and aspirations, was continued.

It would appear that the conversations have not progressed sufficiently far as yet to give grounds for pessimism or optimism. Discussions will continue, and the problem with which they are concerned is without doubt extremely difficult. But in the British view, shared it is believed, by the French, it is still possible by a dispassionate examination of all the elements in the situation to evolve a means whereby the grievances can be removed and legitimate aspirations and susceptibilities be reconciled, which at least offers an alternative preferable on every count to resort to war.

Certain constructive suggestions dealing, for instance, with economic concessions and measures to remove the Italian complaint that their East Afric-colonies are liable to incursions from Abyssinia, remain to be examined.—British Wireless.

As was reported at the time, stormy weather broke out just after the race began, many pigeons being apparently unable to find their way and reach shelter; hence they must have perished at sea.

Stray birds have been reported to have arrived day by day this week, the stragglers being obviously exhausted and underfed.—Kuo Min.

RECREIO REGAINS LOST FROM

Taikoo Junior Creeping Up

The lawn bowls results in the Senior Division were very much as expected. Craigengower "A" continued in their winning streak by overmhelming the Police by 25 shots and incidentally remained at the head of the league table.

Their nearest rival the Recreio, regained their lost from by trouncing the Kowloon Docks, while the Kowloon Cricketers had the better of the Civil Servants.

The Indians won at home against the Craigengower "B".

In the second division the only surprise was caused by Taikoo when they defeated the Recreio by 29 shots. By virtue of this victory the Taikoo have now come up to second position in the table.

The K.B.G.C. won at the expense of the Footballers while their neighbours the K.C.C. trounced the Civil Servants.

Heavy scoring was the order of the day for the junior teams. The rink skipped by J. J. Basto secured a "seven," while "sixes" were registered by rinks skipped by A. R. Dallah, J. C. Chalmers, B. E. Maughan, A. Macfarlane and T. W. Carr.

LOCAL BASEBALL

Japanese Beaten

In one of the most exciting baseball game since the commencement of the League, the Chinese met and defeated the Japanese by 18 runs to 8 at Caroline Hill yesterday.

The Chinese made two runs in the first inning one of which was a "homer" by Matty Chang. To this the Japanese could only reply with a single run, being kept in check by the air-tight fielding of the Chinese squad.

The second canto was played with no runs being registered on both sides.

The good fielding of the Japanese prevented the Chinese from going ahead in the third inning, and the Japanese made another single to draw level.

On the fourth canto the Chinese made only one run, to which their opponents replied with two.

The beginning of the fifth inning saw the down fall of the Japanese.

They cracked up badly and the Chinese took the opportunity and piled up no less than 8 runs, as against the two of the Japanese.

With the score of 11runs to 6 in their favour, the Chinese crossed the home on four occasions in the plate sixth inning thereby enhancing their chances of victory.

The last half of the sixth canto saw the Japanese going all out but they could only notch two runs, through the effort of Okawa who smacked a "homer" with Mikuni on the second base.

On the last canto the Chinese continued to bat confidently and added another three runs to their score to win the game by 18 runs to 8.

The following made a four-base "clout": Matty Chang, Kit Chung, Joe Koe, B. S. Ching, and Wally Ching (Chinese), and Okawa for the Japanese.

The following were the teams. (Chinese) Moe (P), Joe Koe (C), Matty Chang (1st) B. S. Ching (2nd), Ed. Lee (3rd), Wally Ching (S.S.), Ed. Chang (L. T.), Kit Chung (C.F.), A. Ching (R.F.).

(Japanese) Honda (P), Teketa (C), Murata (1st), Okawa (2nd), Kawamura (3rd), Mikuni (L.F.), Kosano (C.F.), Hachiuma (S.S. and Yamasaki (P.F.).

AMERICANS WIN

The Hong Kong Americans had no difficulty in defeating the weak Canadian team in their baseball encounter on Saturday. They had matters all their way and scored 28 runs as against their opponent's 6.

Cootes was the most successful batter of the Americans side, bringing no less than five runs by himself while Thompson, Hirst and Williams each scored four.

The Canadian pitcher, Alltree did extremely well at the beginning when he was at the mound until he injured his hand. He was well backed up by Higgins their catcher. Their third baseman, Smedley effected three clever catches off foul balls.

The Americans were without the services of Lawrence their hurler who had been transferred to Shanghai. Hearther his deputy was not very comfortable.

Classic Struggle To-day

A match that has been keenly awaited, will take place to-day (weather permitting), when the United Services Recreation Club, in their original Mixed Doubles League fixture, clash with the Chinese Recreation Club, on the formers ground.

L. Goldman and Miss R. Hancock have the difficult task of upholding a splendid achievement they gained the last time these two teams met,—that of being undefeated by their opponents, though it must be admitted that they have subsequently dropped their first set this season when they lost to E. F. Fincher and Miss M. Griffins of the K.C.C. "A" team.

Miss H. Hancock partnered by H. D. Tollington should give a good display, but the Chinese are expected to repeat their former success as their second and third string, are more formidable than their opponents.

THE WIGHTMAN CUP

American Ladies Win Again

Forest Hills, August 18.

America retained the Wightman Cup, beating Great Britain by 4 matches to 3, in spite of the fact that Britain were leading by 2 games to one at the close of the opening day's play. The only British victory scored on the second day was in the doubles when Nancy Lyle and Evelyn Dearman beat Carolin Babcock and Mrs. Andrus after losing the first set.

After her defeat at the hands of Katherine Stammers on the opening day, Helen Jacobs, America's captain and runner-up in the Wimbledon championships, beat Dorothy Round, captain of the British team, easily in straight sets.

"Helen" seemed to have rejuvented overnight and demoralised her opponent to lead by five games to love in the first set. She played a machine-like and steady game and gave very little away.

THE DAY'S SURPRISE

Something in the manner of a sensation was caused when Mrs. Burkhardt Arnold beat Miss Katherine Stammers in three sets. The winner covered the court with amazing agility and though the score stood at 2 games all in the first set, Miss Stammers was continually left standing thereafter from her opponent's cross-court drives.

In the second set "Katherine" speeded up her play and sent over a number of "aces," Mrs. Arnold cracking up in the face of this relentless attack.

The third set opened furiously and Miss Stammers fought as though her very life was at stake. She brought the score to deuce for 5 games but was forced to bow to a superior player on the run of play, at 6-3.

The full scores were:—

Miss Nancy Lyle and Miss Evelyn Dearman (Britain) beat Miss Babcock and Mrs. Andrus (U.S.A.) 3-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Miss Helen Jacobs (U.S.A.) beat Miss Dorothy Round (Britain) 6-3, 6-2.

Mrs. Sarah Palfrey-Fabyan (U.S.A.) beat Miss Phyllis King (Britain) 6-0, 6-3; and

Mrs. Burkharat Arnold (U.S.A.) beat Miss Katherine Stammers (Britain) 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

THE FIRST SURPRISE

New York, Aug. 16.

With spirited driving down both sides of the court and keeping her opponent constantly on the run as a result Miss Katharine Stammers, the British lady tennis star, created a surprise to-day when she beat Miss Helen Jacobs in the opening match in the annual Wightman Cup lawn tennis contest at Forest Hills.

Three matches were played to-day and of these Great Britain won two, the two singles, and lost one, the doubles. Four ties are to be played off to-morrow (Saturday).

Miss Stammers won by 5-7, 6-1, 6-7.

The match was played in scorching heat and during the first set Miss Jacobs, with sizzling drives down both wings was able to outplay her opponent after twelve games but in the second set Miss Stammers, with some spirited driving and volleying, had the American player running all over the court.

As a result, Miss Jacobs was forced to net the ball or hit it outside.

In the third set Helen Jacobs held the lead at 5-4 and again at 6-5 but Miss Stammers won the next two games with the loss of only one point. The American levelled up at 7-7 but she finally cracked up, however, and lost the next two games.

EASY WIN

Dorothy Round won her match against Mrs. Arnold in the easiest possible manner, conceding but three games. She won the first set to love and the second 6-3, the match being over in half an hour.

The Americans reduced the deficit in the doubles match when Miss Helen Jacobs and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey-Fabyan beat Miss Stammers and Miss Freda James 8-3, 6-2.—

Statement On Need For Retrenchment

Shanghai, Aug. 14.

Mr. C. M. Tobin will continue to act as Phyhical Director of the Shanghai Foreign Y.M.C.A. His continuation in his present office is due to the fact that no mutually acceptable agreement has yet been reached. The proposal made by the Board has been rejected by Mr. Tobin, while Mr. Tobin's counter-proposal is likewise not acceptable to the Trustees. In view of this deadlock, the situation will remain in "status quo" until mutually satisfactory arrangements can be arrived at.

The following statement has been issued by Mr. C. S. Franklin, chairman of the Board of Trustees:

In common with many business concerns and public organizations in Shanghai, the Foreign Y.M.C.A. has found that in the interests of sound administration drastic though regrettable retrenchments have had to be made.

The Board has been wrestling with this problem for some months, and has been putting various economics into effect, including large salary and staff reductions.

Recently it became evident that in order to balance expenditure with receipts and to take care of a deficit which has accumulated during the past year, more drastic retrenchments would be necessary, even at the cost of the loss of the services of one or more of the senior members of the staff.

FORCED TO ACT

Definite action along these lines was finally forced by the International Committee at home who hold title to the property and who refused permission for a loan upon the property until further reductions in staff were agreed to.

Under these circumstances the Board of Trustees at their meeting in June passed a resolution:—

"That Mr. Tobin's services should be dispensed with as soon as same could be conveniently arranged, and that the International Committee be approached with the idea of having him sent elsewhere, time and method to be worked out in the best way possible for him and every consideration to be given to Mr. Tobin."

Pursuant to this resolution consideration was given to Mr. Tobin's contract and to action taken by Y's in other parts of the world under similar circumstances during the depression and a proposal was made to Mr. Tobin for the termination of his contract. Mr. Tobin was not dismissed nor was his contract broken. The proposal made to Mr. Tobin was not acceptable to him and his counter-proposal to the Board was also unacceptable. The situation therefore is that Mr. Tobin will be called upon to resume his duties until such time as the parties can get together and agree upon terms.

The Board took action to reduce the staff with great regret as they feel they will be losing men whom under normal circumstances, they could ill afford to lose. However the Board felt they had no other alternative.

An organization carrying on the large and varied programme which the Foreign Y.M.C.A. conducts, both among its members and in the community, will be exceedingly difficult to handle with only a skeleton staff. If however, the friends and members of the Association will rally to its support at this time, the Board feels it will be possible not only to cope with the financial necessities of the situation but to maintain a full programme of activities.

TENNIS IN SHANGHAI

Draws Made

With the tennis season slowly drawing to a close the eyes of all enthusiasts are turning towards the championship events which climax each season. The support for the international doubles championship (Roper Cup) is one entry short as compared with last season, Russia not having entered its representatives. The men's singles championship (junior), has eighteen contestants and should witness some good play.

The representatives of the five countries entered for the contest are as under, together with alternatives recorded with the Hon. Secretary, Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association. Great Britain: Duff and Benavitch. Portugal: H. Collaco and D. Costa. Japan: S. Sudo and T. Suzuki or H. Uchida and M. Kimura. America: Lewis Carson and C. C. Squires. China: Gordon Lum and Kho Hooi-hye or C. C. Chang.

The draw for the Roper Cup sees Japan and Portugal now in play in the first round, while the remaining three countries have drawn byes. The winner of the above match will oppose Great Britain in the second round, while America will meet China in this round also. The first round must be completed on or before August 19, and the second round will take place on August 24 or 25. Dates for the finals will be announced later; all matches will be played on the association's courts.

The draw for the men's singles championship (junior), is as follows:—Duchen; C. A. Gonsalves v. C. H. Duff; B. Pintos v. J. G. Forbes. The winners of F. Sullivan v. A Canavarro, and Keeho Chun v. E. Lenzlinger will play A. Boisseree and K. C. Tsai respectively, the latter two having drawn byes in the first round. The remaining matches in the second round are: B. de Borodaesky v. V. B. Krass; A. Seaborn v. W. Neugebauer and T. S. Shen v. T. M. Hsu.

The first round is to be completed on or before August 17; the second round on or before August 24; and the third round on or before August 29. Dates of the semi-finals and final will be announced later.

CHARITY EXHIBITION

With determination to hold the all-star tennis exhibition for the benefit of the flood sufferers along the Yangtze and Huang Ho rivers, the sponsors of the charity matches, Messrs. S. Y. Woo, director of Greater Shanghai Social Affairs Bureau, S. K. Tam, president of the Cathay Tennis Club and Sung Lin-fong, a former tennis star, ordered the commencement of play promptly at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Cathay Tennis Club on Singapore Road.

In the presence of about 500 enthusiasts, Kho Sin-kie and Gordon Lum, stepped on the "en-tout-cas" court. In spite of the heavy rain which fell in the morning and the drizzle in the afternoon, the exhibitors showed high spirit. It was rather unfortunate that the match had to be postponed owing to the torrential shower that flooded the imported court from England, till this afternoon when the same excellent programme will take place.

At 3.30 p.m. to-day Kho Sin-kie will meet Gordon Lum in the first singles and Kho Hooi-hye will clash with Lewis Carson in the other match. In the doubles Kho Sin-kie partnered by Gordon Lum will oppose L. D. Carson and C. C. Squires at about 5.30 o'clock.

Kho Sin-kie was leading by four games love when the rain poured down in buckets to prevent the continuation of the match yesterday. Serving first, Lum lost the initial game by the love count. Lum failed to return Kho's drives to Lum's right thrice and drove into the net to allow his opponent to take the opening game with ease.

Apparently worried by the drizzling rain, Lum was again seen driving wild in the second game. Kho conceded only one point to take the second straight game. The third game was a replica of the second, Lum being erratic, while the gray rain clouds gathered over the court. Kho won by giving one point. In the fourth game the score was at one time levelled at 30 all and through his accurate placements Kho was favoured with the verdict. Then heavy rain came down to put a stop to the exhibitions.

Rangers Forced To A Draw

London, Aug. 17.

Glasgow Rangers, Scottish League and Cup champions, suffered their first setback of the season to-day when they were forced to share four goals at Ayr.

The Celtic, after losing last Saturday at Aberdeen, came into their own when they entertained Hamilton and won by the only goal of the match. Motherwell however, failed to reproduce the form which resulted in Kilmarnock's home defeat last Saturday, and were forced to share the spoils at Aberdeen.

The Hearts, who commenced the season by lowering Partick's colours, found Airdrie in good fettle, while Dundee beat the amateurs in a game that produced 10 goals.

Arbroath, newcomers to the league, suffered their second successive defeat, but Third Lanark opened their account with a brace of points against Kilmarnock.

Results, as cabled by Reuter, were:

Airdrie	3	Hearts	1
Arbroath	1	Albion	2
Ayr	2	Rangers	2

The final of the inter club rink competition of the C.C.C. was played off yesterday between rinks skipped by U. M. Omar and R. Basa respectively and resulted in a victory for the latter by 26 shots to 16.

J. Landolt was the best man on view. He put in some good woods which made the task of Basa much easier.

G. Duncan's Omar's No. 1 was off colour and so was A. F. Paul while M.A.R. Souza's woods were either too wide or narrow.

ROBBED SICK UNCLE

At the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones sentenced Chuck Nam (25) to six week hand labour, for robbing his sick uncle.

Inspector Chester-Woods in outlining the case stated that the defendant was charged with the theft of $3 in 20-cent pieces, Canton currency and that the defendant was the nephew of the complainant, Check Hung, of No. 525, Tai Street. At about 5 a.m. on Thursday the defendant took the money from his uncle's pocket and purchased a ticket to Saigon.

Defendant left a note in his uncle's pocket informing him that he (defendant) had taken the money. When seen by his uncle on the street, defendant made an attempt to run away but was arrested. Inspector Chester-Woods added that the complainant was a sick man and needed the money.

KWOK DELIGHTS

Successful "Y" Function

At a highly successful swimming gala held on Saturday at the European Y.M.C.A. pool, Kwok Chun Hang and Wong Iu Man gave a fine exhibition of breast stroke swimming, the former who won the Melbourne Centenary Race for this event, being accorded a rousing ovation when he took to the water.

The Y.M.C.A. swept the board in the competitive events, though it must not be assumed that that they had things all their own way, for some of the finishes were extremely close.

In the waterpolo game played after the races, The "Y" men were again successful, defeating the Mak Ngah Association by two goals to one, in a fast and keenly contested encounter.

R. B. Woods ("Y") won the 50 yards free style, by a quarter of a second from Crossan (R.E.), while in the 150 yards Medley, Chicken of the Lincoln lead G. H. Fowler ("Y") until the last 50 yards, when he cracked up and allowed the latter to runaway with the event.

The most thrilling race of the evening was witnessed when H. G. Lange ("Y") defeated Pearse (R.E.) in the last length of the 150 yards free style after swimming neck-to-neck with his rival.

Kwok Chun Hang covered the exhibition 100 yards breast stroke swim in 73 4/5 secs., which is 4/5 of a second outside his Colony record.

The following were the results:—

50 Yards Free Style

1. R. B. Wood (Y.M.C.A.); 2. Crossan (R.E.); 3. Allison (Lincolns). Time: 29½ secs.

150 Yards Medley (Breast, Back And Free Styles)

1. G. H. Fowler (Y.M.C.A.); 2. Chicken (Lincolns); 3. Barnsley (R.E.). Time: 2 min. 16 4-5 secs.

COOLIE INJURED

A coolie, named Chow Chi, sustained a fractured skull, when a rock, suddenly broke loose on the hillside at Stonecutters Island, shortly after 7 p.m. on Friday. Several other coolies were with him at the time, but they were fortunate enough to escape injury, by running away in time.

THE LIBERAL VIEW

True Line Of Development

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Sir R. Hamilton (Orkney and Shetland, L.) said he was glad to be the first to congratulate Mr. MacDonald on his admirable first speech as Secretary for the Colonies and for the knowledge of the subject which he had displayed after only six weeks at the Colonial Office. (Cheers.) The House was gratified to know that the Colonies as a whole had improved their financial position during the past year after the bad times they had been through recently.

Continuing, the hon. gentleman said that when this country became Protectionist, it was bound to have a considerable influence on the economic relationship of the Colonies Empire with ourselves. Mr. MacDonald had referred to the largely increased export of the goods of the Colonies to this country, and that was all to the good. The new policy, however, had implications and tendencies which had implications and tendencies which had not yet been fully realized. The policy was carried out by the orders of the Secretary of State, who gave directions for the carrying through of certain measures, and directions had been given which had not met with the approval of the local councils.

LINE OF DEVELOPMENT

To-day we saw the bad old proposals for exploitation of Colonial Empire coming up in their worst form. The true line of development of our Colonial possessions was that of improving their material and moral well-being. A wealthy and contented colony was a much better possession, from the point of view of trade, than a poor colony which was unable to buy and sell in the way it ought to be able to do. Education was making vast strides in our Colonial Empire, and news of things which were said and done in the House and in this country had a remarkable way of travelling up and down Africa. It would be most regrettable if action taken on this side should lead to a sense of resentment in the Colonies and the feeling that their interests were being subordinated to those of the Home Country. Also foreign jealousy might be stirred up if the policy were carried too far of putting difficulties in the way of the foreigner to make things more easy for the home producer. If a hitherto open door were closed it might have dangerous repercussions. (Hear, hear.) Great pressure was being brought by manufacturers and exporters in this country on the Colonial and other Offices to see that every possible assitance was given to them to export their goods to the Colonies, and we must be careful in giving them assistance not to subordinate the interests of the people in the Colonies the interests of the people at home. (Cheers.)

LABOUR CRITICISM

Mr. Lunn (Rothwell, Lab.) congratulated the Secretary of State on the lucidity of his speech and the very nice manner in which it was delivered. He said that his congratulations ended there. When a Minister took office he ought to take the responsibility of his office, and not make a speech full of nothing but excuses for doing nothing. The right hon. gentleman had touched on health services and education, but he did not say that anything was being done of any material nature. The interests of those who lived in the Colonies should come first, but since the right hon. gentleman betrayed his life's training in 1931 it did not give him (Mr. Lunn) much hope for the future. The right hon. gentleman had said nothing to show that the Government or the Colonial Office was doing anything to improve the educational facilities for the natives. There was no definite statement of what was being done in regard to the health services. The re-creation of the labour departments was one of the greatest necessities in dealing with native labour in the Colonies. He urged the Colonial Secretary to put an end to the system of child slavery which prevailed in Hongkong and in the Federated and unfederated Malay States.

RACIAL FEELING

Sir E. Grigg (Altrincham, U.) said that the suggestion about the possible effect of events in Abyssinia on racial feeling in British territories was stretching the imagination too far. It was true that racial feeling had made itself felt in Africa as in Asia, but if present events unhappily terminated in war he was of the opinion that there would be a reaction of that feeling in our favour. The attack on our position in Africa was not coming from Africans or from anybody outside ourselves. It was coming from within our own land. There was a ceaseless propaganda representing that the Colonial system we administered was one of pure exploitation. It was going to the Universities. It was influencing very large numbers of younger men, and if it went on it would undermine the peace of the Colonial Empire, not because of its effect on Africa, but because of its effect on ourselves.

DESERVED ANALYSIS

This criticism, nevertheless, deserved analysis and would do good in the end if it made us look scrupulously at the debit and credit record of our rule, particularly in Africa. As things stood the account was fairly balanced. While we derived great advantages the Africans also dervied great advantages from our administration. The dangers ahead were political and would arise in Africa even faster than they did in Asia. The whole problem in Africa was how to make the economic development of the country keep pace with the growing demand for new services. While recognizing the difficulties, he expressed the hope that something could be done to cheapen credit in the Colonial Empire. If the interest on loans could be lowered it would be an immense relief which would enable the expansion of services to be made more easily.

The white settlers in Kenya were our responsibility and they could not be disposed of by speaking of them with ill-will. There were three alternatives. If the House were convinced that the settlement was a mistake, the white settlers could be bought out and transported to another place where they could make their living. But Kenya would be an impossible economic proposition if the white settlers were taken out of it. The second alternative was the policy of drift while the position grew more difficult every year. The third, and the only possible course, was to realize that we were committed to the settlement and that we had got to reinforce and look after Kenya. The white settlement was not a disagreeable necessity forced upon us by what had happened in the past, but a real root for our civilization in Africa, if the right type of settler went out.

BEARY SAVAGED BY HORSE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 29.

Michael Beary, the well-known jockey had a narrow escape from serious injury when he was savaged and jumped on by a racehorse during riding work at Newmarket on Saturday.

"The horse responsible for the trouble," he said, "was John James, whom I have often ridden. When the rug was being taken off Captain Whitaker's assistant approached John James, who struck out at him with his forefeet.

"I was on the horse at the time, and said, I will take the rug off. I jumped off, holding the far rein so that his head was away from me. When I loosed the rein for a second to jump on him he was round like lightning.

"He seized me by the side, reared up with me while I was handing head downwards, shaking me like a dog does a rat. Then my riding breeches gave way, and he was so surprised that he stopped and enabled me to get way."

"BOBBY" ABEL'S RECOVERY

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 30.

"Bobby" Abel, the old Surrey and England cricketer, who has been dangerously ill at his home at Kennington, London, has made a remarkable recovery. Early this month Abel, who is now 77 years of age, was reported to be fighting for his life, but now, in his home near the Oval, he is able to walk about a little each day. He is now almost blind, but is always eager to know the latest news of the Test matches, and his son, Mr. Alfred C. Abel, reads the newspaper reports to him every day.

NO PENSIONS FOR BOXERS

Plan Fails

London, July 29.

A proposal that the British Boxing Board of Control should supply belts for British championships to be competed for on similar lines to Lonsdale Belts, and provide a pension of £1 per week from the age of fifty for any winner outright, was defeated at Manchester on Saturday at the Board's annual general meeting.

Thirty-three votes were cast against the suggestion, and eleven votes in favour.

A decision which will affect American boxers visiting this country was made by the approval of the following addition to Regulation 20:—

"American boxers will be granted permission to remain in Great Britain for a period of two months (which may be extended) on the following condition:—

"That the boxer will not take part in more than one boxing contest promoted in Great Britain and Northern Ireland in any fourteen days during his stay; and permission will be granted for two alien boxers only to appear on any one programme, unless under special or exceptional circumstances for which permission must be obtained from the Board."

JEFF DICKSON OBJECTS

Mr. Jeff Dickson, the promoter, was the only voter against the acceptance of the balance-sheet, which showed a decrease in the deficit from £1,278 in 1933 to £193 this year.

Referring to an item of £2,740, being purse money forfeited by Jack Doyle, the Irish heavyweight, in connection with his fight with Jack Petersen, Mr. Dickson said that he could not accept the balance-sheet because he had not been given a hearing in connection with the case.

The Board's regulations were altered, as Colonel Myddelton explained, to allow boxers from the Dominions to compete for British titles, subject to certain conditions.

It was agreed that in other than catch-weight matches boxers in any one contest must be engaged at the same weight; and the regulations were altered to provide that all area championships and eliminating contests must be over fifteen three-minute rounds.

FIERCE TIGERS

Canton, Aug. 17.

It is reported that a number of tigers, yellow, red and brown in colour have made their appearance in the Pak Ti Village of the Kwang Ning District.

So daring and fierce are these tigers that they attack pigs and carry them off before the eyes of the astounded villagers.

It is reported that such tigers have never been seen before, and the villagers are now banding together and planning their destruction.—
Yam Wah Yat Po.

WILD PIGS

Canton, Aug. 17.

Wild pigs have made their appearance in the Chen Ping Villages of the Ching Yuen District. These wild pigs usually come out at night and eat up all the ground-nuts planted by the villagers.

The villagers are now banding themselves together in groups of 7 or 8 persons, and watch for the destructive pigs nightly with loaded rifles, and are also accompanied by trained dogs.

It is reported that these wild pigs have tusks, and so fierce are their attitude that the dogs fear to approach them. One of them that was shot weighed 170 catties.—
Yam Wah Yat Po.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Report

August 17.

Messrs. G.A. Harriman & Co.'s weekly share report and market review issued at noon on Saturday states:—

As a whole the market maintained a very steady tone during the week under review and although the volume of business was not large, there were more enquiries for investment stocks. Hongkong Trams were very steady and were dealt in at $12.65/75. Star Ferries were slightly firmer with enquiries at $77½, but sellers were scarce. A fair amount of business was put through in Hongkong Electrics at $58½/59½ in demand at $59. Telephones (old) came to business at $20.35 with further buyers at $20.25. Wharves eased off somewhat and could be obtained at $76½. Hongkong Lands formed a notable feature of the week having slumped one point from $29 to $28, the market, however, closing better with enquiries at $28½. With the exception of Hotels which touched a low level of $3½, minor issues attracted very little attention. China Lights were rather neglected, shares having changed hands in small scrips at $8.30. Cements were on offer at $3½ without attracting buyers. Providents (old) remained unchanged with enquiries at 55 cents. Watsons revived to a buying rate of $3.10. With the drop in exchange Sterling counters were firmer; Hongkong Banks closed in demand at $1070 and Unions at $380. The tone of the market at the close is quietly steady.

Business during the week has been done at the following prices:—

H. K. Banks, $1047 Ex. div.
Antamoks, 79½ cents.
H. K. Hotels, $3½.
Humphreys, $7½/7¾.
H. K. Trams, $12.65/12¾.
Telephones (old), $20.35.
Canton Insurances, $185.
H. K. Fires, $180.
Gold Rivers, 6½/7 cents.
H. K. Lands, $28.
H. K. Electrics, $58½/59½.
Providents (old), 55 cts./60 cts.
H. K. Govt. 4% Loan, 6¼% prm.
Bank of East Asias, $75½.

RUBBER DUTY

Batavia, Aug. 17.

An emergency ordinance concerning the estate rubber export duty will be issued in October, whereby the duty will be enforced on January 1, 1935. Discussion of the duty in the present session of the People's Council will probably prove impossible.

The details of the duty are as formerly announced.—

BERLIN BOURSE

Dull And Erratic

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Aug. 17.

The week-end business in the sharemarket was dull and erratic, the turnover was small, but nevertheless there were some price rises owing to the favourable statement about the Reich finances issued by the Finance Ministry.

The Dyetrust announcement was satisfactory. Fixed Interest securities were quiet, the very little business price changes were small. Call Money rose 2¼ to 2⅜. Except in the case of bank shares the advances in price were considerable and to a smaller extent metallurgicals in the sharemarket showed little change during the week.

Considered as a whole, the market was sluggish because of the extreme shortage of stock available to investors and a high price level had already been reached which introduces an abnormal risk into investment at this junction.

The smart rise in the bankrates was partly explained by this cause, the good shares in this branch of the market were still better than in Germany.

The export surplus in July revealed by the publication of official figures improved the outlook without, however, affecting the volume of the business. Fixed interest securities continued to be dull, but the prices remained firm.—

REICHSBANK STATEMENT

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Aug. 17.

The Reichsbank statement of August 15 issued on Saturday shows Goldstock had decreased by 10.0 to 94.7 million reichsmarks, while foreign currencies remained the same as before at 5.3 millions, making a total of note cover decline of 10.0 to 100.0 million reichsmarks.

The note circulation shrank by 23.1 to 3717.2 million Reichsmarks. The amount of credit issued as measured by bills, cheques, advances and investments decreased by 1.6 million to 4347.7 million reichsmarks, the sudden drop in Goldstock was due to the discharge of certain overdue obligations to foreign countries.—
